ESTIMATE CITY VOTE AT 6,500 DESPITE RAIN

Higher Than Average Turnout Seen in Line with State Trend.

Despite a light rain which fell for the better part of the morning an estimated 6,500 Marion voters appeared headed for the polls today. The showing, better than average for an off-year election, followed the trend throughout the state with virtually all of Ohio's eight major cities reporting heavy balloting during the morning despite rain in Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati, Dayton and Youngstown.

The proposed constitutional amendment to pay bonuses aggregating $300,000,000 to veterans of World War II was considered a factor in the large turnout. The veterans organizations have predicted that a record off year of two million voters would approve the bonus by a comfortable margin. Election officials pointing to large numbers of new registrations, mostly of veterans, anticipate a heavy vote.

First, Tiro Voter

An example of the intense interest among veterans was George F. Sutter, Jr., a student at Ohio State university. He was first to vote at Tiro in Crawford county this morning rushing back to Columbus in an 150 mile round trip to make a 9 a. m. class.

A spot check of precincts in all six wards in Marion indicated that between 6,000 and 7,000 voters here would cast ballots by 6:30 p. m. with most precincts reporting a slightly over average number of voters appearing in comparison with former city elections.

In the first ward, precinct B had recorded 92 voters and precinct D, 80, at that time. Other Wards reported as follows in a random check, Second ward, precinct D, 66; Third ward precincts A and D, 41 and 97. In the Fourth ward, 86 had voted at 11:30 a. m. in precinct A while in precinct B, 97 had cast ballots. Precinct B in the Fifth ward reported 75 while A and C in the Sixth ward were in the 90's and 100's respectively. Only one, precinct A in the Third ward, estimated the vote as below average for a city election.

Report Heavy Voting

In Youngstown an estimated 10,000 persons had cast their ballots at 8:30 a. m., two hours after the polls opened. Voters had to wait in line in some precincts.

Party battles for control of municipal and county governments and a special election in the Fourth congressional district to name a successor to Rep. Robert F. Jones (R), who resigned to become a member of the federal communications commission, were expected to swell the total vote.

Republicans predicted their nominee, William M. McCulloch of Piqua, would win handily over John B. Quatman of Lima, Democrat, in the six-county Fourth district which has returned Republican majorities for the past decade.

Interest in many communities centered chiefly in the outcome of mayoralty battles. Among cities choosing mayors were industrial centers like Cleveland, Columbus, Akron, Canton and Youngstown.

Cincinnati had a real battle over the question of repeal of proportional representation in electing councilmen. This was the third attempt to repeal PR which has been in effect for 20 years.

The Youngstown municipal election became so heated that Secretry of State Edward J. Hummel assigned two inspectors there to watch the balloting and the count. The observers were requested by C. A. Covington Jr., Republican city campaign chairman.

ELECTION INTEREST HIGH IN MISSISSIPPI, KENTUCKY

Mississippi voters choose a successor to the late Senator Theodore G. Bilbo, and the border state of Kentucky decides a hard fought campaign for governor in today's two major off-year elections.

Elsewhere, selection of three U.S. representatives to fill vacancies in New York, Indiana and Ohio shared interest with scores of races for city, county and state offices.

Politicians generally said little could be expected to develop in the way of trends for next year's presidential contest.

However, injection of the Taft-Hartley labor law as an issue added interest to the Kentucky gubernatorial race between Rep. Earle C. Clements, Democrat, and State Attorney General Eldon S. Hummit, Republican.

GALION PLANT IS REOPENED

Approximately 750 Workers Return To Mark End of 74-Day Strike.

GALION, Nov. 4—Employes of the North Electric company went back to work today with both shifts scheduled for the first time since the UAW-CIO struck the plant Aug. 20.

The approximately 750 employes had been idle 74 days while the union and management engaged in a bitter controversy over UAW recognition.

Despite the fact that the plant is resuming production under an agreement between the company and union reached only after state intervention and a congressional hearing had spotlighted the controversy, the issue of UAW recognition is still far from settled.

The North Electric Co. management has announced that it will negotiate at any time a collective bargaining agreement with whatever union of whatever character that shows us by secret ballot election that it speaks for a majority of the company employes."

The agreement reached with the UAW, the company insists, preserves the right of a secret election to determine majority representation. The company pointed out that if employes seek such an election they may file with the NLRB to obtain one.

Wants Card Check

The UAW, which had demanded an election prior to the strike and had failed to get it, has insisted on a cross-check of union pledge cards as of Aug. 19 to determine whether it speaks for a majority of company employes. The cross-check was agreed to by the company.

Indications that the question of majority representation may soon come to a test was given by a move by employes both at Galion and at the Mt. Gilead plant to organize an independent union, with intent to seek company recognition.

At Mt. Gilead Monday night 93 production workers met for the purpose of organizing a company union. Only three present voted against forming an independent organization.

These officers were named on a temporary basis: president, Mrs. Earl Pinyerd; vice president, Harold Beardsley; secretary, Mrs. Betty Jackson; treasurer, Mona Taylor, and trustees, Florence Crider, Cleo Prosser and Edith Worthington.

Similar Move At Galion

A similar movement is on foot at Galion where a committee of "Independent Workers of the North Electric" have called an organizational meeting for 8 p. m. Wednesday in Maccabee hall. Heading the committee is George A. Zaebst of Galion.

Further difficulties for the UAW were indicated with the announcement by George Fadely, Galion, a company employe that he will file a suit against the UAW-CIO for loss of wages during the strike, procedure granted individuals under the law.

BURGLARS INVADE O.S.U. FRATERNITY HOUSES

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4—A wave of fraternity house burglaries on Ohio State University campus complicated life today for the Greek letter brethren.

For the first time in history, fraternity men carried house keys. Their officers said the burglaries were well timed and committed by persons familiar with fraternity life.

2,500 HEAR MISS TRUMAN

Telephone News Election Service Set for Tonight

Arrangements have been completed for special telephone election news service to be provided by The Star tonight.

Reports on returns on any and all local contests and special issues will be available to all who phone The Star office. A corps of tabulators and phone operators will be on duty from 8 p. m. until the final returns are received. It is not expected that completed reports from any precincts will be received before 8:30, possibly a little later, and the final results are not likely to be known until around midnight.

The public is invited to use the phone service at any time during the night and as often as information on the trend of the voting is wanted.

The Star's phone number is 2314.

Wednesday's Star will give complete reports of the election results in the county and state as well as in other localities throughout the country where voting is taking place today.

GI FOUND GUILTY IN FILIPINO COURT

By The Associated Press

MANILA, Nov. 4—A Filipino judge convicted Pvt. William Keller of homicide today in the first trial under the new agreement giving the Philippines court jurisdiction over American soldiers in respect to off-duty offenses.

Lt. Col. Seymour Werfel, judge advocate of the Army's Philippines-Ryukyus command, said Keller's case would be appealed to the highest courts of the republic because of its importance in setting precedent.

Keller, a 19-year-old soldier from Helena, O., was sentenced to an undeterminate sentence of six months and one day to six years in prison and was ordered to pay a fine of 2,000 pesos ($1,000). The money is to go to the family of Jaime Logronio, a Filipino night watchman Keller was convicted of killing in a fight June 2.

Two co-defendants were acquitted. They were Tech. Sgt. Joseph Andrew Miller, 29, of Dallas, and Pvt. Richard Frederick Risley, Fulton, N. Y.

Judge Conrado Sanchez said he found no intent to commit wrong, and that Keller had struck Logronio while defending his lady companion.

3 MEN JAILED IN THEFT OF FURNACE PARTS

Two from Marion and One from Zanesville Face Charges.

Two Marion men and one Zanesville man are in jail today. Jailed in Columbus are George Ober, 38, of Marion, charged with two counts of burglary and one of grand larceny, and James Thomasson, 31, of Zanesville, charged with receiving and concealing stolen property.

In Marion city prison is Dennis Lewis Trachsel, 29, proprietor of the Arctic Heating Co. of North Main street, charged with receiving and concealing stolen goods. The charges were the result of a $5,500 theft of equipment from the Ohio Furnace Company in Columbus recently.

Arrested Friday

The men were arrested last Friday at Marion police headquarters on a warrant issued by Chief William E. Marks. All three were held for investigation by Columbus authorities in connection with the Ohio Furnace Co. theft, Oct. 2 of this year.

Saturday the prisoners were taken to Columbus and charges were filed yesterday against Ober and Thomasson. On further investigation it was found that Trachsel had received the stolen property here in Marion, making his case that of Marion jurisdiction. Columbus detectives yesterday then brought Trachsel as far as Delaware where they were met by Chief Marks and the prisoner placed in his custody. The charge of receiving stolen property was filed immediately.

Property Recovered

Furnace parts, electric motors, and furnace controls and accessories valued at $2,500 have been recovered at the Arctic Heating Company offices here in Marion, Chief Marks said.

Columbus Detective Martin Winters said that two burglaries occurred, one on the Fourth of July and one the second of October.

Trachsel pleaded not guilty when arraigned in municipal court this morning. A preliminary hearing was set for Nov. 10. He was released on $1,000 bond.

ZANESVILLE CHEST OVER TOP IN EXTENDED DRIVE

By The Associated Press

ZANESVILLE, O., Nov. 4—The Zanesville and Muskingum county Community Chest boasted today that by trying again it had topped its campaign goal of $92,000. The campaign fell short at its scheduled closing last Wednesday but it was extended to yesterday when contributions mounted to $93,588.74.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4—Short of its goal by $41,000, the Columbus and Franklin county Community Chest campaign closed last night with contributions totaling $1,206,014.

Citizens' Group Recommends General Income Tax Reduction

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4—A citizens advisory committee on taxation recommended today "a reduction in individual income tax rates for all, with due regard for the cost of living of those in the lower income groups."

The study group was set up by the house ways and means committee, and includes both business and labor representatives. Roswell Magill, former undersecretary of the treasury, heads it.

The group's report was submitted as the ways and means committee assembled to prepare tax legislation for the special session of congress convening Nov. 17. Chairman Knutson (R-Minn) has said he wants a bill cutting income taxes by $4,000,000,000 a year.

Cooperatives Studied

Also on the committee's list of business was the issue of whether farmers' cooperative associations should be taxed at the same rate as business corporations. On that, Undersecretary of the Treasury A. Lee M. Wiggins submitted a report suggesting that a decision be deferred.

Wiggins said he thought it would be wise to put off a decision until the treasury completes a study it is now making of the entire tax system.

Magill told the committee his group was making no specific recommendations as to rate changes and personal exemptions, but believes "equitable adjustment of tax rates and exemptions is the number one federal tax problem today."

Knutsen withheld temporarily release of the report's text. But it was understood to propose 46 changes in the tax laws.

Matthew Woll, AFL official and labor member of the 10-member study group, filed a minority report disagreeing with the majority.

An associate of Woll said his report contends that the majority recommendations would:

1. Severely reduce federal revenues.
2. Disregard revenue needs for the European aid, and
3. Shift the tax load from those best able to those least able to pay.

When the house committee met, Knutsen said hearings on a general overhauling of the tax structure would end by Jan. 1.

Winant, Former U. S. Ambassador, Ends Life

By The Associated Press

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 4—John G. Winant, 58, former ambassador to the Court of St. James', committed suicide last night by shooting himself in the head with a bullet fired from a .32 calibre Belgium pistol.

His private secretary, J. Bernard Teulon, said in a statement issued early today that the death weapon was one of two pistols found in the bedroom where his body was discovered. The other, a .32 German Luger, apparently had been thrown against the wall.

Teulon said Winant had not been in good health since the summer, but that he had continued work on his memoirs, even completing a section of the second volume yesterday.

JOHN G. WINANT

He ate lunch downstairs, but had dinner served in his room. No one saw him after dinner. Teulon said he died at 8:20 p. m., about an hour after the diplomat had fired the fatal shot into his head. He did not regain consciousness, passing away while his personal physician, Dr. James W. Jameson, was administering to him.

Mrs. Winant, who was notified in New York of his death, arrived at Concord airport in a state of collapse in a chartered plant early today. She went immediately to the family home.

Medical Referee Clarence E. Butterfield pronounced Winant a suicide and said he shot himself while alone in a bedroom of one of his sons. A single shot had been fired from the Belgium weapon.

Notification went to two sons, John, Jr., of Princeton, N. J., and Rivington, a student at Oxford, England, and a daughter, Mrs. Carlos deVelando of Lima, Peru.

Reported "Fatigued"

Miss Irene Mason, secretary to the thrice-governor of New Hampshire, told officials he had been suffering "mental and physical fatigue," while Miss Orpi Mears, a maid in the Winant home, said he "seemed to be in low spirits."

They said they heard no shot but were attracted by the thump of Winant's body. They rushed from the first floor study to find him dead in his room.

Only recently, Winant completed the first volume of his memoirs, which are to be made public this month.

Winant returned to private life last December when he asked President Truman to relieve him of his post as permanent U. S. representative on the United Nations economic and social council, to which the President had named him in 1946, after he left his ambassador's office.

He wanted, he said, to "pick up life again as a private citizen in my own country."

Three Times Governor

As governor of New Hampshire—the only man ever to serve three terms—Winant, an outspoken critic against politics, as such, set up several agencies for a social and labor betterment. His ideas caught on throughout the nation.

The late President Roosevelt went out of the Democratic party to name Winant, a Republican, as first head of the social security board.

Immediately, the black-browed, sharp-eyed Winant went to Europe, where he spent several months delving into the social problems existing there.

Throughout his public life, Winant cared naught for political creeds. He never hesitated to support President Roosevelt on legislation designed to better the people of America, often doing so in the face of colleagues' objections.

He said many times he was not interested in political jobs, but in principles.

Aided Workers

Repeatedly he fought for higher wages for textile workers. He obtained legislation in his home state, as chief executive, legalizing a minimum wage law, aid to dependent children and the creation of a state planning board.

His hobby? Deep interest in his wife's West Highland terrier kennels.

Winant, because of a personal resemblance, often was likened to Abraham Lincoln. Tall and somewhat stooped, he appeared serene under most adverse conditions. A slow speaker, he often appeared hesitant, but it was to select the best phrases possible to carry his point.

He was a lifelong admirer of the martyred president.

Gov. Charles M. Dale said, shortly after learning of Winant's death, that he was under consideration for appointment as president of the University of New Hampshire.

Winant was born in New York City, Feb. 23, 1889, and was educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, and Princeton. He also studied at Dartmouth and University of New Hampshire majoring in American history and politics.

He became a history and civics teacher at St. Paul's and entered politics in 1916 with election to the state legislature, continuing almost without interruption except for World War I service, in elective or appointive office to the time of his death.

A Republican, he became a Bull Moose in 1912 and campaigned for

AP MAN EXPELLED BY HUNGARY REDS

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Nov. 4—Jack Guinn, 31, Associated Press correspondent in Hungary for the last 22 months, has been expelled by the Communist-dominated government of that country and expects to leave Budapest today for Vienna.

The government notified Guinn yesterday that he must leave Hungary within 24 hours or face charges of "espionage and the smuggling of criminals" out of the country. Guinn decided to bow to the order after conferring with U. S. Minister Selden Chapin.

Guinn's wife and two children will follow him to Vienna shortly, by U. S. legation plane.

The Hungarian government action against Guinn followed by a week the arrest of his American-born secretary, Miss Elizabeth K. Pallos, 31; and by three days the expulsion from Yugoslavia of Arthur M. Brandel, Belgrade correspondent for the New York Times.

The Hungarian ministry of interior issued a statement, saying that political police had discovered "an organization for espionage," in connection with which Miss Pallos and seven other persons had been detained.

"In connection with the discovery of this organization," the statement said, "ministry of the interior authorities expelled Mr. Jack Guinn, Associated Press correspondent, from Hungary forever."

Brandel and his wife, Mary Lester, United Press correspondent left Belgrade yesterday. They were ousted for what the Yugoslavs termed "offensive" writing.

Yesterday's statement by the interior ministry in Budapest was the first detailing of any reason for the detention of Miss Pallos.

MacARTHUR REPORTED AFTER G.O.P. NOMINATION

By The Associated Press

BALTIMORE, Nov. 4—A story in the Baltimore Sun today said General Douglas MacArthur is planning "a triumphal return to the United States" next spring to "capture the Republican nomination" for president in 1948.

The story was written by Robert B. Cochrane, former chief of the Sun-papers' Tokyo bureau.

It said: "Private advices from Tokyo received today state flatly that General Douglas MacArthur will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for president in 1948.

"It is definitely known that MacArthur plans * * * return * * * in April or May."

TOKYO, Nov. 4—General MacArthur declined comment today on a Baltimore Sun story which said he would seek the Republican nomination for president next year. In refusing to comment the general adhered to his policy of silence on recurring reports that he might bid for presidential office.

DEBATE ON KOREA REOPENED BY UN

By The Associated Press

LAKE SUCCESS, Nov. 4—The United Nations reopened debate on Korean independence today in a stepped-up drive to reach general assembly adjournment before Thanksgiving.

American sources expressed confidence that Secretary of State Marshall's Korean proposal would be accepted by the 57-nation political committee during today's discussions. These sources also predicted defeat for a counter Soviet resolution calling on the United States and Russia to evacuate their troops from Korea by Jan. 1.

The Marshall proposal provides for a UN commission to oversee elections to be held not later than next March 31. Troops would be pulled out as soon as a government is set up.

With conclusion of work on the Korean question, the committee will turn to another Marshall proposal for creation of a year-around "little assembly." A modified version of the American plan was accepted in a 15-nation subcommittee yesterday, 9 to 0, with Russia and Czechoslovakia continuing their boycott and four other countries abstaining.

At a plenary meeting last night delegates approved unanimously a world condemnation of propaganda that might threaten peace.

PREDICTS ATTACK ON CHURCH IN POLAND

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Nov. 4—Stanislaw Mikolajczyk predicted today that Communist-dominated Poland soon will begin an attack on the Catholic church.

The Polish Peasant party leader, refreshed after his dramatic flight from his native land to escape being "shot and killed like a sheep," said he intended to go soon to the United States "to see friends."

He predicted Poland "will come more and more under Communist control and more pressure will be put on the people following the coming of the cominform."

"If the Yalta decision could be fulfilled in Poland and there could be a free, unfettered election, I am quite sure the Communist bloc would not get five per cent of the votes," Mikolajczyk asserted.

"But there has been a steady increase of the terror and it has grown more since the cominform."

He was referring to the recent organization in Poland of nine-nation Communist information bureau with headquarters at Belgrade.

"The real terror," he continued in a news conference, "has existed there all the time and we have been resisting it as much as we were able in the past two and one-half years.

"The feeling in Poland is very intense now. Methods have been introduced not only in political intimidation but also in the economic life which are quickening the way to the communization of Poland."

WORK STARTED TO PREPARE BUILDING HERE

Official of Time, Life and Fortune To Head Newly Organized Concern.

Marion will become the headquarters of the Fulfillment Corp., a newly incorporated company, which will handle all billing and other matters relating to subscription lists for a number of nationally circulated magazines.

Announcement that the concern would begin operations here within a few months was made today by the Marion Chamber of Commerce. It will occupy the four-story building at 381 West Center street recently vacated by the Scherff Furniture store. The building is owned by Bernhard Peterson, president of the Berlou Chemical Co.

The Steward Construction Co. yesterday started work of remodeling the building to meet the needs of the new concern. It is expected to be ready for occupancy about Jan. 1.

List of Officers

President of the new company is Wendell B. Ward of Chicago. At present he is in charge of handling all subscription billing and mailing for Time, Inc., publishers of Time, Life and Fortune magazines, whose subscription lists mount into the millions.

Other officers are Edwin J. Kinter of New York City, vice president and treasurer; and Walter G. Henry of New York, secretary. Mr. Kinter has been associated with the nationally known accounting firm of Ernst and Ernst. Mr. Ward and Mr. Kinter expect to make their homes in Marion.

Establishment of the company here is expected to add at least five million pieces of mail to the Marion postoffice volume in 1948. Future expansion of the business will increase this figure still more.

The West Center street building contains approximately 20,000 square feet of floor space. All this area will be used in the company's operations.

High Employment Figure

As operations get under way the company will employ from 80 to 100 women. By the close of 1948, however, this number is expected to approach the 500 mark.

A training course will be set up as remodeling work progresses and as soon as equipment is available. With the exception of six to ten key persons who will be brought here from outside, all employes will be chosen from Marion and vicinity, Chamber of Commerce officials said.

Practically all employes will be used for the operation of specially designed machines made by the International Business Machines Corp. for this type of work.

Will Do Circulation Work

The force employed here will be in charge of all circulation records such as recording new and renewal subscriptions, billings for subscriptions due, mailing of promotional letters to subscribers and all other matters involving correspondence with subscribers.

The announcement today that the concern would settle in Marion is the culmination of three-months negotiations between officers of the company and the Chamber of Commerce.

Elsie the Cow Loses In Clash with Auto

A fatal accident occurred six miles north of Marion on county route 67 at 7 p. m. last night, the state highway patrol reports.

The dead: Elsie, a cow owned by Roy Knapp of near Marion.

Elsie was struck by a car driven by James F. Russell, 47, of Mansfield. Considerable damage resulted to the car.

SEISMOGRAPHS REGISTER STRONG EARTH TREMORS

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 4—Seismographs at Fordham university here and at Boston college recorded strong tremors at about 7:22 p. m. (EST) last night.

Seismologists at both institutions agreed on the approximate distance, which was placed at more than 6,000 miles, but disagreed on the direction from which the disturbances originated.

Rev. Joseph Lynch at Fordham said the direction was uncertain but that he thought it probably was northwest of New York. At Boston college the tremor was said to be in a northeast direction, apparently in the vicinity of the Arabian sea.

In Plain Words by James Marlow

WASHINGTON

HOLD your hats. The tax-cut talk starts again. You'll be hearing it for months to come.

Maybe you'll get a cut in your 1948 taxes. This much seems pretty positive: you won't get a cut in taxes you owe on 1947 income.

In 1947 congress twice passed bills to cut your 1947 income tax. And twice President Truman killed the idea with a veto.

All the talk in Washington now is about cutting 1948 taxes, not those for 1947.

Months ago the house ways and means committee, which handles tax problems in the house, set up a special outside committee of 10 civilians to study taxes.

That committee was expected today to recommend a bunch of changes in the tax laws, including cuts in 1948 taxes.

So that starts the tax-cut talk all over again, with a bang.

CUTTING YOUR 1948 TAX would be a politically popular thing for congress to do because 1948 is a big election year.

In 1948 you'll vote for a president, vice president, one-third of the senate, and all 435 members of the house.

If either political party, Democrat or Republican, could claim credit for a 1948 tax-cut, it would have good vote-getting bait.

But something besides politics will get mixed up in any effort by either party to cut your 1948 tax. There'll be two big stumbling blocks:

1. The national debt.
2. The Marshall plan.

Here's why:

Our taxes pay the cost of running the government. When the cost is greater than the taxes it takes in, the government has to borrow money.

THE MONEY IT borrows is called the national debt. That debt now is about $259,000,000,000.

Most of that money was borrowed during the war when the cost of running the government, and paying for the war, went far beyond the taxes taken in.

Right now the cost of running the government is less than the amount of money the government collects from us in taxes.

So the government is using the difference—between the cost of government and the total taxes—to pay off some of the national debt.

When Mr. Truman blocked the tax cuts in 1947, he argued this way:

Everybody is working now, and making money, so we can afford to pay high taxes and help pay off the national debt. We'll never be able to pay it off if a depression comes and taxes and jobs fall off.

THAT'S STILL AN argument against cutting taxes but now the Marshall plan has been added and that mixes up the picture some more. This is why:

Under the Marshall plan—Secretary of State Marshall's proposal for helping Europe help itself get on its feet—16 European nations figure they'll need about $22,000,000,000 in then next four years, mostly from us.

So the big questions before congress will be:

1. Can we—in addition to the cost of running the government—pay out billions to Europe and still cut taxes?

2. If we help Europe and cut taxes will we still have any money left to pay off some of the national debt?

DR. GEORGE T. HARDING

DR. GEO. T. HARDING ON PROGRAM HERE

President's Nephew To Speak on Methodist Forum.

Dr. George T. Harding, Columbus and Worthington psychiatrist and nephew of the late President Warren G. Harding, will speak at the School of Religion and Life of Epworth Methodist church and Methodist churches of Marion county Wednesday night. He will speak in the forum hour at 8:15 on "Emotional Problems of Living."

Director of the Harding sanitarium at Worthington, Dr. Harding is also a clinical professor of neurology and psychiatry for Ohio State university. He lives in Columbus. From his wide experience in his chosen field, he will bring here an interpretation of how emotions effect behavior specifically and in general. This is third of the School of Religion sessions, with two more Wednesday night meetings to follow. Classes concerning four phases of religious interest precede the forum hour each Wednesday night and are taught by instructors from Ohio Wesleyan university and Delaware.

GOODRICH PRODUCES NEW RUBBER FOR ICY ROADS

By International News Service

AKRON, Nov. 4—Development of a new type of recapping rubber which has a sandpaper grip on icy roads and streets was announced yesterday by the B. F. Goodrich company of Akron.

Shipments of the new "winter type" camelback material, which has abrasive particles molded into it, are being made to dealers in all parts of the country.

J. A. Hoban, merchandise manager for Goodrich replacement tire sales, said that the new material was designed strictly for winter wear as it would not yield total mileage comparable with regular recap stock in year-round use.

Roving Reports by Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

THE eyeballs of the varsity bench-warmers in Washington Square park popped out like marbles in a pinball machine.

Pythias Roundelay, the skinny poet laureate of Greenwich Village, had entered wearing a new green topcoat and a black Homburg hat. He couldn't have caused more consternation if he had arrived in a diaper.

Two old men looked up and promptly dropped the checkerboard between their knees.

Pythias sniffed, drew off a pair of shiny blue gloves and sat down on a bench. His old friend, Alpheus Thistlethwaite, glanced over at the apparition—and almost fell off the other end.

"What happened?" he inquired. "You look like a dried pickle wrapped in a rainbow."

Before Pythias could answer, a fat pigeon waddled over. It was a case of mistaken identity. Pigeons had long ago given up hopes of handouts from this poet.

"Off, you feathered bum—off!" shouted Pythias. The pigeon fluttered away.

"He didn't recognize you without your sweater," said Alpheus.

"I HATE ALL PIGEONS," muttered Pythias. "All civilizations fail that feed popcorn to pigeons and won't give even peanuts to poets."

Thistlethwaite pointed at the rhymer's glittering ensemble.

"That isn't peanuts."

"My wife bought me these clothes," said the poet with dignity.

"Everybody's doing better these days," replied Alpheus politely, "but I don't recall she ever made that kind of money before taking in washing."

Pythias shuddered like a garter-snake convulsed with sour apples.

"It's worse than that. We've become prisoners of capitalism. My wife became angry because my last poem, Mcondrip Nocturne, sold for only $7.50.

"She said she could make more money than that herself writing poetry. So she tore the wrapper off a bar of candy and entered one of these damnable jingle contests in which you have to write only the last line."

"Don't tell me she won first prize!" exclaimed Alpheus.

"No, only second prize—$5,000 and a washing machine," groaned the anguished poet. "Then she entered a corn flakes jingle contest. She won $1,000, a vacuum cleaner and ten cases of corn flakes.

"NOW I CAN'T WRITE at home anymore. She just sits at my desk all day and crunches corn flakes while she writes more jingles. Did you ever sit and listen to a woman chewing dry corn flakes?"

"Why don't you enter a jingle contest yourself and show her up?" suggested Alpheus.

"I did!" wailed the poet. "I wrote one on soap. Soap! And all I got back for selling my soul was a form letter and a bar of soap."

"Well, it'll last you a lifetime, old boy," consoled his friend. "You're really above such forms of commercial competition. Be yourself again. Show your wife. Why don't you discard that new coat and go back to wearing your old sweater?"

"The coat," sighed Pythias, "is warmer. And until those corn flakes are gone I am strictly an outdoor poet."

KENT PAST FUND GOAL

By International News Service

KENT, Nov. 4—This city yesterday joined the growing list of communities well over their community chest goals. Although final tabulation will not be made for another week Kent has already exceeded its $15,940 quota by more than $1,590.

NEW HUDSON MODELS VIEWED BY DEALERS

Walter E. and William S. Haberman of the Haberman Brothers Motor sales at 203 South Prospect street, returned Friday from Detroit where they attended a private showing of new model Hudson cars.

New features of the models are a lower center of gravity, more headroom and roomier seats, cradled between the axles.

The public showing of the new cars will take place in Marion as soon as all Hudson dealers have received their display cars.

TALK ON ASTRONOMY GIVEN BEFORE CLUB

W. F. Ehrick Speaks Before Shovel Co. Foremen.

An interesting discussion of amateur astronomy, accompanied by a showing of slides, featured the Nov. 1 meeting of the Marion Power Shovel Co. Foremen's club in the Hotel Harding ballroom.

The speaker was W. F. Ehrick of Vernon Heights boulevard, plant manager of the Huber Manufacturing Co. Mr. Ehrick has been an amateur student of astronomy for many years and is widely known.

A short talk was made by Harvey T. Gracely, president and general manager of the Marion Power Shovel Co.

Joe Johnson, president of the club, was in charge of the program, which brought a group of talented music students from Harding High school before the Foremen's club, which thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated their repertoire. The students' program presented Charles Pensinger, piano; James Rea, son of Phil Rea, of the engineering department, vocal, accompanied by Fred Lacey, and Fred Halt, trombone, accompanied by Nancy Kuntz.

A business meeting and luncheon were also a part of the foremen's program.

NOVEMBER ARRIVES WITH BAD NEWS ABOUT TAXES

By International News Service

CLEVELAND, Nov. 4 — The month of November was welcomed in over the weekend and with it came the morose subject: computation of 1947 income taxes.

Thomas M. Carey, Cleveland collector of internal revenue, reminded Clevelanders that the crucial time is drawing near and offered help in computing taxes and arranging payments.

The collector announced the fifth annual opening of income tax schools at which representatives of employers may learn how to facilitate the compuation of taxes.

Carey asked for full cooperation from the public especially now that congressional budgets have resulted in a decrease in personnel. He said:

"We find ourselves facing a 20 per cent decrease in personnel and a 20 per cent increase in business."

Announcement!

The Marion City Funeral Directors Association has adjusted the fees for Ambulance Service as follows:

Ambulance Calls Within City Limits

From 8 A. M. to 5 P. M. $5.00

From 5 P. M. to 8 A. M. $7.00

This advance in fee due to the following reasons:

1. General rise in costs of maintenance and operation
2. Necessary increases in salaries of attendants
3. Inflated costs of new and replacement equipment

The above increase to be effective on and after November 5, 1947

ADMISSIONS TAX RETURNS DUE SOON

First Reports Under New Ordinance Set for Nov. 10.

Admissions tax returns for the month of October under the new municipal levy must be filed by Nov. 10, City Auditor Elmer Shaw warned today.

Passed by city council in September, the three per cent tax on admissions became effective Oct. 1 under city ordinance. The levy supplants the state assessed tax which was withdrawn on that date.

Under the ordinance anyone planning to conduct entertainment where admission is charged must make application to the city for a license at a fee of $1. To date Mr. Shaw has received 15 applications for licenses, including those from schools, theaters and fraternal organizations. One temporary permit has been issued.

Marion theaters will be the largest individual source of municipal revenue under the new tax set up. All local theaters have been licensed and will submit first returns probably this week.

Wrestling matches, high school football and basketball, professional baseball and football and club entertainment programs where the public is charged admission all fall under the new ordinance.

Returns are due the first of the month, covering the preceding months admissions. Deadline for filing returns without penalty is the tenth day of each month. Failure to file, or failure to apply for a license is covered by fine or imprisonment or both in the case of repeated failure to file or filing false returns.

The city auditors office has necessary forms on which the tax report may be filed and notarized.

MANUFACTURERS PRICE RISE CAN BE CHECKED

By The United Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 4—The National Association of Manufacturers said yesterday that the current rise in prices could be stopped by stepping up industrial production and preventing a further increase in the buying power of the public.

The NAM, in a price investigation report, said there was an "unprecedented gap" between a 225 per cent increase in actual dollars owned by the people in the United States since 1939 and an increase of only 70 per cent in physical production.

The report said it was surprising "prices are not even higher than they are now" in view of the strong upward pressure exerted by the disparity between money supply and production. It said price rises here were different from inflation in other countries, however, because the "integrity of the dollar" has not been questioned.

O. B. EVENSON

DISTRICT SCOUTERS TO MEET THURSDAY

Assistant Director of Rural Work To Speak.

A meeting of district chairmen, Boy Scouts of America, from four counties, Marion, Wyandot, Crawford and Morrow, district commissioners from these counties and Marion field commissioners, will be held Thursday night, Nov. 6, at the State Drug Co. on South State street. It will be a dinner meeting at 6:30.

Speaker will be O. B. Evenson of New York, assistant national director rural Scouting service, Boy Scouts of America.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss advancement of scouting in the Harding Area, especially the phases of rural scouting. An objective of the Boy Scouts is to gain 1,000 new scout in the rural areas.

Mr. Evenson, as a boy, was interested in Scouting, being a member of the original Lone Scout organization. Later he became a charter member of the first Scout troop in Stanley, N. D. He continued in scouting as an assistant scoutmaster in St. Paul, Minn., and entered Scouting professionally in 1930.

District chairmen present will be F. O. Van Sickle, Morrow county, Wallace Beebe, Crawford, Russell Price, Wyandot, and James E. Frew, Marion. District commissioners, who will be present are Roy Roller, Morrow, Guy Anguish, Crawford, Ed Naus, Wyandot, and Charles Smith and Howard Ropke, Marion. Field commissioners are Herman Powelson and Harold Power. Also present at the meeting will be Hugh Hay, scout executive for the Harding Area, and Owen Meddles, field executive.

Mr. Evenson will also address an executive board meeting of which Dr. Robert T. Gray is head at 8 p. m. Thursday at the Boy Scout office. This meeting is to discuss rural scouting and the district setup.

MRS. DOROTHY GALLADAY HEADS EASTERN STAR

Mrs. Dorothy Galladay was elected worthy matron of Lydia Chapter No. 83, O.E.S., Monday night at the Masonic temple, with Charles Haughn as worthy patron. Elected also were Mrs. Mary Conyers and Rayl Conyers, associate worthy matron and associate patron; Miss Pauline Ruhl, secretary; Mrs. Eloise Youngs, treasurer; Mrs. Mary Craven, conductress and Mrs. Naomi Hohe, associate; and Foster Miller, trustee for three years. Reports were made by committee chairman, and by local members who attended sessions of the grand chapter in Columbus last week. Installation was announced for Dec. 1, and plans were made to confer initiatory work Nov. 17.

NAME SHRINE GROUP

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4—Gov. Thomas J. Herbert today appointed six members of an 11-man board to develop a unified system of parks and historic shrines with connecting drives in the 22 Ohio counties traveled by Gen. Anthony Wayne's expedition from 1793 to 1795.

It is estimated that about 30 per cent of all heat loss from homes in winter is through the windows.

CLUB HEARS TALK BY REV. SPICKERMAN

Lions Meet at Hotel; Delegation at Columbus Session.

"Restoring God in Government" was the subject chosen by Very Rev. William J. Spickerman, V. F., for his talk to members of the Marion Lions club Monday noon at Hotel Harding. Twenty-five members of the club were in Columbus Monday where they attended a meeting of District 13-B in observance of Central Ohio Lions Club day. Lions from all Ohio were present with 650 persons present. The affair was held at the Neil House.

Shaping his talk to cover the much-discussed situation in today's news report of Communistic infiltration into our government, its cause and what to do about it, Rev. Spickerman recalled that this country was originally founded by people who believed in God, that our laws are based on God and equal rights, and that the Constitution mentions God.

Robert Haldeman, program chairman, introduced Rev. Spickerman. Robert Axe, first vice president, presided for the meeting as the president, Robert Morrison was attending the Columbus meeting. An announcement was made of a stag party to be held Nov. 10, with no luncheon meeting at noon. Guests were Karl Bechtle of Marion, M. N. Barrett of Chicago and Richard Appleman, a Lion from the Cincinnati Downtown club.

Speaker and guest at the district meeting in Columbus was Fred W. Smith of Ventura, Calif., international president.

District governor of 13-B, Emerson Tipwood of Ironton, made the presentation of a gift to Mr. Smith from the district.

Introduced from the speakers' table were Senator John W. Bricker, Governor Thomas J. Herbert, John Robert Jones, secretary to Gov. Herbert, Edward Kingsley of Parkersburg, W. Va., international president in 1936-37, and officers of the Columbus club, the largest in the United States, Harry Clay, first vice president, Wilbur Miller, second vice president, Jack Dorsey, third vice president, and James Engles, secretary and treasurer. Robert Barton, immediate past president, was toastmaster.

Attending from Marion were John Peacock, Larry Larsen, Harry Selter, Robert Morrison, Wilson Dallas, R. E. Vestal, Thomas Sonnanstine, Robert G. Scott, Carl F. Barchfeld Frank Gage, Ronald Rish, W. R. Richenstein, Cecil Baldauf, Frank Barnhill, Joe O'Connor, John Pickerel, Richard E. Probst, Earl J. Andrews, George Pfleiderer, Richard Keller, James G. Lytle, James Beal, George F. Schwab, Harry Hammond and James Rankin.

JAILED. This character, booked as Mr. R. A. Coon and charged with tearing up Canton, porch flower boxes, was sprung from clink by owner Ted Boltz.

KADGAR GROTTO PLANS CEREMONIAL AT TEMPLE

Members of Kadgar Grotto set Nov. 22 as the date for a ceremonial at a meeting Monday night in the Masonic Temple. The ceremonial will be held in the temple and an all Kadgar cast will put on the work. Several petitions were balloted on, and a special meeting for Nov. 17 was announced.

Two shares in the Marion Community Fund were purchased, and plans were made for a Christmas party for members and their families to be held Dec. 20. Children from the Marion County Children's Home will be guests.

Several prophets are planning to attend a ceremonial Saturday, Nov. 8, at Elyria, at which time a new Grotto will be instituted which has a charter membership of 125. There will be over 400 candidates for the ceremonial. El Karan Grotto of Lima will put on the ceremonial work.

Several applications were taken for the Grotto club, formerly known as the Low 12 club, and it was voted to hold the Jan. 26 meeting in the Legion Dugout.

It is estimated that some sulpha drugs are worth 800 times as much as the coal from which they are derived.

British Sweep Ports For Sunken Wreckage

LONDON—In an all-out effort to beat the winter gales, the British authorities in Germany have ordered a speed-up of the salvage of a million tons of sunken ships which are still cluttering up major ports.

Kiel and Hamburg are mostly affected and a total of 500 ships will have to be cleared from the berths and approaches.

Altogether, it is estimated, this work will take at least another five years to complete. German labor under the direction of British technicians is responsible for raising this sunken tonnage.

The Royal Navy has cleared practically all essential navigable channels from obstructions, but the lanes are not yet wide enough for complete safety.

The approaches to Hamburg are only a mile wide, and from Kiel to Hamburg the channels are bouyed to safeguard shipping.

About 200 vessels have to be raised at Kiel, representing about 150,000 tons. Hamburg will be a much more formidable task as about a million tons of wreckage require salvaging.

Some ships lying in shallow waters with soft beds will be blown up by underwater explosion, the debris burying itself in the mud. But those lying on hard beds must be raised.

Book Forecast Russ Trouble

Writer in 1900 Predicted U. S. Conflict with Eastern Power.

By The United Press

NEW YORK—If anyone had predicted some 50 years ago that the United States would supplant Great Britain as the dominant world power, he wouldn't have been listened to. If he also said the United States would attain economic world supremacy and engage in a life and death struggle with Russia to decide the future of humanity, people would have dismissed such a prediction as fantastic.

Such a prediction, nevertheless, was made back in 1900 by Brooks Adams, grandson of John Quincy Adams, sixth president of the United States, in his book, "America's Economic Supremacy." Only because he was the grandson of the president did the critics call him a "fairyland philosopher" instead of challenging his sanity.

Today, 47 years later, Harper & Brothers are publishing the book. Part of Adams' prophecies have come true. Others are still in the offing.

The basic idea of Adams was that the centers of civilization and economy that have been moving slowly through the centuries from the Near East to Constantinople, Venice, Amsterdam, Paris and London are now tending to separate, "the one drawing toward the confines of Russia, the other gravitating toward America."

Focus Would Change

America, on one hand, would become within one or two generations the center of the Western civilization based on individualism. Russia would be the focal point of the Eastern, civilization (comprising Germany), tending toward collective systems. England is decaying, Adams predicted, but its existence will remain essential to the U.S.A.

He went to say: "Great Britain may . . . be not inaptly described as a fortified outspot to the Anglo-Saxon race . . ." An Anglo-Saxon coalition would alter profoundly the equilibrium of the world. It will be able to attain many common ends. But it is bound, ultimately, to clash with Russia. The clash will occur in China. Because Russia—probably together with Germany—will attempt to dominate northern China to the exclusion of the United States.

Standards Involved

This would make it impossible for us to get rid of our surplus in the Eastern markets. We would then run into a grave crisis and be faced with having "to reduce our scale of life to the German or perhaps the Russian standard, to accept the collective methods of administration with all that they imply," or "we must be prepared to fight our adversary and we must arm in earnest."

But America cannot fight successfully with "the antiquated administrative machine we have inherited from the last century . . ." we must go through a social reorganization. ". . . Indeed the path to supremacy has seldom proved smooth . . . it has always entailed its sacrifices as well as its triumphs, and fortune has seldom smiled on those who, besides being energetic and industrious, have not being armed, organized and bold."

Bird songs are now believed to be a means of warning intruders away from territory appropriated by the singer.

I am a little business man, in business for myself. I buy my papers at wholesale, paying for them each week, and sell them at retail, the difference is my profit and working capital.

I am the sole judge of whom to extend credit to.

If you don't pay me, I can't pay for my papers, I lose my profit, and become discouraged.

I collect each Saturday morning, help me by paying each week and should you not be at home at my regular collection time leave your money and card where I can get it.

Class of 1936 Sends Invitations to Dance

Invitations for an alumni dance to be held by the class of 1936 of Harding High school have been sent out, according to an announcement made by the committee in charge headed by Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Ruby as chairman. Tentative plans are for the affair to be held Nov. 28 in the ballroom at Hotel Harding.

Replies to the invitations are to be returned prior to Nov. 15, the committee asks, and are to be mailed to Robert Minard, physical director at the Marion Y.M.C.A. and a member of the dance committee. Tickets, which are $1 per person or $2 per couple, were sent out with the invitations.

The committee has been unable to contact approximately 45 members of the class due to lack of addresses. Any member of the 1936 class who does not receive an invitation, is urged to call Mrs. Ruby at 8770 for full details.

Serving on the committee with Mr. and Mrs. Ruby are Mrs. John Uncapher, Mrs. Don Creviston, Mrs. Karl Bechtle, David Isaly, George Conroy and Robert Minard.

THE FRAZER MANHATTAN

ONE OUT OF EVERY FOUR OF OUR OWNERS DRIVES A FRAZER MANHATTAN

You Can Afford America's Largest-Selling Fine Car!

The Frazer Manhattan has broken every sales record in the long history of the automobile industry. Never before has any big, luxurious fine car sold in such volume in less than seven months from the date it was first announced! It has had a truly phenomenal public acceptance—more than 25,000 buyers in less than seven months!

Henry J. Kaiser and Joseph W. Frazer put the seal of their approval on this new product of Willow Run, last March. They knew they had put into it supreme beauty and luxurious appointments, smooth power and maximum performance, unusual safety features and long-lasting dependability—plus the balance and poise that would make it the easiest riding car in the world. They knew they had spared no expense—in engineering, in materials, in precision manufacturing methods. They knew, in short, that this car had what America wanted! Then they priced it "right"—hundreds of dollars below what would have been justified by such superlative quality. To everything else they added value! For they wanted to make and sell this great car in volume.

They were right in their planning. For while Frazer Manhattan production has been increased five-fold since last April, public demand has never yet been filled!

Come and see—and drive—this big, handsome, roomy, ultra-modern motor car. You will agree with its makers that it has everything you have hoped to enjoy in a post-war automobile—and at a price you can afford to pay!

The Bane of Bigness

IN ITS first test run, Howard Hughes' flying behemoth lifted itself above the Los Angeles-Long Beach harbor for a flight of more than a mile. This will dispel the senate investigating committee's doubts that it ever would fly but it hasn't dispelled the doubts as to the practicality of such mammoth aircraft.

Men can't go on making aircraft larger indefinitely, and there is reason to believe the optimum size may have been reached some time ago. When planes become so large they can be accommodated only by the largest landing or docking facilities, when they present new and exceedingly complex mechanical and navigational problems, in addition to being multi-million-dollar investments, it's time to call a halt. Future development lies not in mere bigness but in new technical developments.

The British have learned this in their experiences with ocean liners, for they are planning no more like the Queen Elizabeth and the Queen Mary. Instead they will rely on smaller, faster and less costly vessels like the new Media.

Another Anti-Trust Suit

THE anti-trust suit against 17 large New York investment banking firms, coming at this time, raises the question of why such action was so long delayed. The practices complained of have been common since the early 1920's.

Investment firm representation on the boards of industrial corporations, the government believes, establishes too strong a link between the banks and industry, although investors might be happy to have such representation.

As to the charge the firms have conspired to keep up security prices, they are higher, like everything else.

The government has been a long time preparing its case and the defendants have been equally diligent preparing theirs. It should make interesting headlines—especially in an election year when it's good politics to give Wall Street a going-over.

How Sincere Are They?

AN aftermath of last week's un-American activities has been indignation meetings in Hollywood and New York. "Fascism isn't coming, it's here," was their theme. The Thomas committeemen weren't accused outright of being Cossacks but the suggestion was there.

All the familiar names were in evidence. Self-appointed spokesmen for "liberal" causes made known their views—and noble views they were, drawing heavily as they did on the Bill of Rights, Holy Writ, Tom Paine and Thoreau. Mention of Karl Marx was studiously avoided.

This is not to imply that a majority of those who participated in these meetings were Communists or Communist sympathizers. But they are being used by extreme left-wingers who find them eloquent front men.

Would these "champions" of the dignity of man and the sanctity of the individual rush into the breach if a homegrown Mussolini were to mount the rostrum, only to find himself arraigned because of his fascist viewpoint. That would be the test of their sincerity.

Let's Not Bungle This One

A WASHINGTON dispatch says the White House has approved a maritime commission plan to "make available" 96 tankers to foreign buyers despite the fact there are many American bidders for them. The proposed sales have caused a schism in the commission and have drawn the criticism of the senate small business committee.

In most instances the foreign bidders are governments that see an opportunity to rehabilitate their merchant marines, which, of course, would then be in competition with our own. The sale of such ships also would reduce our supply of tankers.

Grenville Mellen, federal shipping commissioner, says the ship sales act gives American citizens preference in the purchase of surplus marine equipment. In making 96 tankers available to foreign governments, we had better make haste slowly lest it becomes apparent in the midst of a winter oil shortage on the eastern seaboard that we have been peddling our tankers across the sea.

Cloud Pushers

THE forest service reports there have been 9,100 forest fires this year with an average of $385 for control work on each. This adds up to $3,500,000, exclusive for incalculable losses in natural resources.

Last week there was an event which may be of prime significance in forest fire-fighting. A plane flew near a forest fire in the southwest, "sowing" dry ice in a cloud bank. Driven by favoring winds, the clouds moved over the fire and discharged rain, extinguishing the fire.

Science still knows comparatively little about artificial rain, but it's apparent it can be produced, given a fair accumulation of clouds to start with. The next step may be to equip planes with cloud pushers, like snowplows, to round up stray clouds preparatory to wringing them dry over forest fires.

Another "Willkie" Not Likely

Reminders of British Loan History.

WHEN the British loan was being considered, a vast propaganda was organized to impress the American people to support the loan. That propaganda put the loan over, but much that was then said has turned out to be untrue. Just to remind the gentle reader, I pick at random from a mine of material:

Here is a pamphlet entitled "15 facts on the proposed British loan" issued by the committee on international economic policy of which Willis H. Booth, Robert L. Gulick, Jr., Winthrop W. Aldrich, Philip D. Reed, Fred I. Kent and James T. Shotwell are listed as officers. This pamphlet begins with the paragraph:

"Every business man knows that it is to his advantage if his customers prosper. Every American should know that it is in our national interest to strengthen the financial position of our best customer—Great Britain."

In Wrong Direction

But we know that Great Britain's financial position has deteriorated since we made that loan.

Richard E. Mulcahy, writing in the magazine, "America," asked:

"If loaning Britain, say, four billion dollars will help achieve the goal of a rational free trade world, is there any reason why we should not make the loan?

Representative Knutson of Minnesota opposes aid to Britain on the ground that we would be supporting a socialistic government which is inimical to our free-enterprise system. But this is a false issue. There is grave doubt whether the labor government of England can be called 'Socialistic' . . ."

I find here a very funny one.

On Aug. 5, 1945, Joseph C. Grew, then acting secretary of state, wrote Congressman Emanuel Celler:

"It is desirable to make clear at the outset that the British government has not approached the department concerning a loan. Nor have we any present plans for requesting legislation to authorize such a credit."

Clayton's Reason

Here is another state department item:

"William L. Clayton, assistant secretary of state for economic affairs, who has been the principal American negotiator in the Anglo-American financial conference, said today that financial aid to Great Britain could be justified entirely in terms of American self-interest.

"He said he would not wish to justify it on any other basis, such, for example, as on the sentimental grounds that Britain was our recent ally."

Walter Lippmann, in an attack on Bernard Baruch for opposing the loan, wrote:

"Mr. Baruch simply does not know what is going on in the world if he imagines that he can stop European socialism by threatening to withhold American credit. The threat itself will only provoke Europeans to go faster and farther towards planned self-sufficiency within a closed system which American business men and financiers cannot interfere with. The withholding of credit, or offering it on conditions which are political and ideological rather than economic and business-like, can only make collectivism a certainty. For in a state of economic siege or blockade within confined regions of the world, there can be little or no free and competitive enterprise."

So we gave them $3,750,000,000 and they went more socialistic and now they come for more.

It Didn't Happen

Lippmann also wrote:

". . . The best estimates seem to be that the sterling debt needs to be cut about 50 per cent and that the dollars needed will be in the order of four to six billion. An international settlement of that magnitude would, it is believed, permit a great revival of world trade . . ."

But that did not happen. Just the opposite happened.

Senator George L. Radcliffe of Maryland said on a town meeting of the air:

"Private industry in Great Britain would in many ways be aided, not retarded, by his loan. We ought to know, by this time, that a policy of isolationism either political or economic on our part is neither workable nor endurable . . ."

But private industry in Great Britain has been retarded, not aided, since the loan was made. It has been so retarded that productivity in that country is in peril of collapse and the British are working on the 16 to 1 loan to try to save their industries.

There is so much more on the subject—but no room for it today. Maybe another time.

No Wonder You Get a Busy Signal

Forty-two billion telephone conversations were held in the United States last year.

Does that include wrong numbers?

Of this 42 billion phone calls, it is estimated that roughly twenty-six per cent were necessary. The remainder were made by women.

The telephone is a great medium for spreading information . . . This is especially true of the party line.

Alexander Graham Bell really revolutionized our way of life. It's hard for moderns to realize that gossip hasn't always traveled with the speed of sound.

But before the invention of the telephone, our means of communication were extremely primitive. Still, they had their advantages. So far as I can determine, nobody ever began a smoke signal conversation with a coy, "Guess who this is . . . . ."

Yes sir, the telephone is really a marvelous invention. How else can a sick citizen learn immediately that the doctor is out for the rest of the day?

An Island of Courage

By Joseph Alsop

VIENNA, Nov. 4—The heart of Austria is occupied by the Soviets. The leaders of Austria live always in the shadow of danger from an occupying power which includes kidnaping among the legitimate political methods. Under the circumstances, it is decidely impressive to hear these men and their supporters boldly comparing the present grim times to the great days 300 years ago, when the Turkish advance into Europe was halted under Vienna's walls. Yet this comparison is a common place of political talk here.

To be sure, the Austrian leaders of today conspicuously differ in manner and appearance from the Starhembergs and Sobieskis, the princes of the flamboyant past. They are plain men in worn business suits, who look rather incongruous amid the imperial portraits and baroque decorations that the Hapsburgs left behind them. They are also widely assorted. Vice Chancellor Schaerf, for example, is an oldtime Socialist who knew Lenin when he crept through the Vienna streets as an exile, while the young, tough foreign Minister Gruber, of the Catholic People's party, made his name in the resistance. Yet they are all entirely united on one point.

These Austrian leaders will not be worn down in their resistance to the long, ruthless Soviet effort to destroy Austria's independence. And despite every kind of inducement, ranging from bribery of special groups to the most violent propaganda, the Austrian people are staying with their leaders.

Whereas in Western Europe the Communists command 20 to 30 per cent of the vote in most national elections, only 5 per cent of the Austrians vote Communist at polling places actually watched over by Russian troops.

Here is a riddle which demands to be solved. The solution is very simple. The Austrians are anti-Communist because they know what it is like to belong to the Soviet sphere. And they are able to continue the struggle for their independence because the United States and the other Western powers also have troops in Austria. Americans, British and French at the control council table in Vienna have almost daily checked the Soviets when they sought too flagrantly to breach their promise of Austrian independence. Both by their presence and more directly, the Americans, British and French, and especially the Americans and British, have also encouraged the Austrians to struggle for freedom. The result is the present situation.

Austrians Up Against It

For the Austrians, however, the present situation is a cruel stalemate. The Soviets say they will not leave Austria except on terms which will undermine Austria's sovereignty. These terms the Austrians and the Western powers will not accept. Yet the occupation is a dead hand on Austria, which will always prevent the revival of normal life.

The Austrians themselves think there is a remote chance that the Soviets will make a bargain at London. If they are right, the Soviets on the one hand will reduce their "German assets" stranglehold on the Austrian economy. On the other hand, the Western powers, and especially America, will have to guarantee the new Austrian long-term economic and political support. Political support will be needed to permit the Austrian government to root out the various political mines and trip ropes which the Soviets have planted here and there.

Economic Aid Needed

As for economic support, something like $600 million will have to be spent on Austrian recon-

It was Thursday, Nov. 4, 1937. President Roosevelt, heading southward toward Washington from Hyde Park, planned to see New York's fiery little Republican Fusionist Mayor, Fiorello H. LaGuardia, who had been reelected mayor of New York two days before.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Bacon, Mrs. Carroll Crotinger, Mrs. Clara Oswalt and Mrs. Grace Giddens attended a school of instruction for Rebekah lodges in District No. 33, at Delaware.

Frederick Edward Linstedt, 90, one of the oldest members of Emanuel Lutheran church, died at the home of his son, B. C. Linstedt of near Cardington.

A pageant depicting the history of the church and the women's organizations from the beginning was presented at a joint meeting of the Ladies Aid and Missionary societies of the First Presbyterian church.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Whittington of Avondale avenue.

Rev. E. A. Lehman, pastor of St. Paul's English Lutheran church presented his resignation to the church council. He was to take over the pastorate of a church at Leipsic, O.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Friday, Nov. 4, 1927. Marion's first snow of the year fell shortly before 6 a. m. but melted as soon as it hit the ground. The temperature had dropped to 33 degrees.

Forty Marion lodges had been invited to take part in the city's anual observance of Armistice day, Oscar Gast, chairman of the committee in charge, announced.

Frances Voll of Lafayette street went to Buchanan, Mich., to visit his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Huebner, over the weekend and to join a party going to South Bend, Ind. to attend the Notre Dame-Minnesota football game.

Ralph Bender, member of the Waldo High school junior class, won first honors in a prince of peace oratorical contest held at the school.

Helen Dorsey, Harding High school sophomore, headed the school's honor list for October with an average grade in all subjects of 96.25 per cent.

Mrs. Amelia Tavenner was honored on her seventy-ninth birthday anniversary by a company of friends who called at her home on East Pleasant street.

Mrs. Bertha C. Lenon was hostess to the Lucky Thirteen club at her home on Monroe street.

Joseph H. Cahill, 64, died at his home on East Fairground street.

Russia Losing The Cold War

By Walter Lippmann

MY strongest impression after a tour in eastern and in western Europe, and in Germany, is that the Russians have lost the cold war, and that they know it. We, on the other hand, do not know this, and are afraid to believe it. We have mistaken the violence of Mr. Vishinsky's language for Russian power, and are, therefore, unprepared to use constructively the opportunity for a European settlement which is closer at hand than we think it is.

An analogy from the war will perhaps make clearer what I am trying to say. We made two great mistakes which cost us dearly. First, we underestimated the power of Germany and Japan and their intentions, and as a result we were unprepared when war came. Then toward the end of the war we overestimated their power, and were unprepared to make peace. We have learned the lesson of the first mistake, and we have been able, I believe to check effectively the military expansion of the Soviet empire. But we have not learned the lesson of the second mistake.

The course of events in western Europe is demonstrating, not conclusively perhaps but with reasonable certainty, that highly developed countries cannot be captured by Communist propaganda and infiltration. They do not react to hunger, inflation, and the paralysis of government by turning to the Communist party. They turn to the right, not to the left—to the conservatives, the reactionaries, and in the extremist agony to Fascism.

Happened Before

This is what happened in Europe after the first World War, and it is happening again. We have been greatly misled by our professional anti-Communists who did not grasp the elementary fact that the Communists are a minority—chiefly an urban minority—who can capture a modern state only if they have an army behind them which will crush the opposition. A Communist party, which never enlists more than 30 per cent of the people in a western nation, cannot capture the state by strikes and sabotage. It can only paralyze the government and disrupt the social order. But that arouses the other 70 per cent who are not only the greater number but command most of the instruments of social power—the national army, the church, the bureaucracy, the peasants who can withhold food from the cities, the owners of industry, and of the liquid wealth of the nation.

A Communist party would need the backing of overwhelming military force to overcome this opposition and to liquidate it. In western Europe that is not happening, is not likely to happen—I would venture to say it cannot happen—as long as the Red Army is firmly pinned down at the Seteein-Trieste line. It is now pinned down—not of course by our ground forces in Europe—but by our total power, and the evidence we have given that we know where and how to use our striking forces if the Red Army, or Tito's army, crosses the military frontier.

Advance Stopped

In retrospect I think we may say that the advance of Communism into western Europe was stopped when we sent the battleship Missouri to the eastern Mediterranean. That was when the Soviet propaganda became furiously anti-American. It was the fury of frustration, born of the realization that the Red Army was outflanked in Europe, and that we knew the way to the vital and vulnerable heart of the Soviet Union.

From then on the cold war was lost for Russia—though we have continued to wage it as if we were still on the defensive.

It seems to me reasonably clear that the Kremlin has realized its position at least since last spring.

I learned from several sources, which are probably reliable, that last spring the French and Italian Communist leaders were arraigned before a secret tribunal and denounced as failures by one of the highest officials of the Russian Communist party. They were told that they had collaborated with the Socialists, the Christian Democrats, and the Liberals, and they had failed to bring France and Italy within the orbit of Soviet diplomacy. They were ordered to cease collaborating, and to fight the Socialists and Progressives, and to become a more competent and more militant revolutionary party.

The so-called Cominform, the new Communist International with its seat in Belgrade, appears to have grown out of this situation—that is to say out of a belief in the Kremlin that they have lost the cold war in western Europe, and might even begin to lose it in eastern Europe unless they toughened their tactics.

To Crush Opposition

There followed the decision to crush all opposition in their own orbit, and to commit irretrievably the governments of eastern Europe—all of which want to collaborate with the west. I think this was the reason for execution of the Bulgarian Peasant Leader

Daily Bible Thought

If you are in complete harmony with the infinite you will have real cause to bless Him.—Psalm 103: "Bless Jehovah O my soul."

CROSSTOWN By Roland Coe

"Why can't you just read OVER my shoulder—like a normal person?"

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Oh, Say Can You See!

America is becoming the land of the fleet and the Home of the Long Enduring. And if the cost of living gets much higher we will be singing, "Oh, say, can you see by the pawn's early blight!"

* * *

The motto "Never give a sucker an even break" has become current in many places. The cry, "Take him again, he hasn't the will to resist," rings over hill and dale.

* * *

The old regard for customer goodwill has become almost invisible, and nowhere will you encounter such unconcern as on the face of a tradesman to whom you squawk "If you treat the public through the wringer like this you will lose your customers in time."

* * *

Distinctly a museum piece is the man who frets if he doesn't think his customers are getting their money's worth.

* * *

There are, of course, plenty of reasons why things in all lines must bring more money, but Mr. Curtis E. Customer has a firm impression that a big part of the bleeding is unnecessary.

* * *

The Forgotten Man has reached a point where he is sorry he was remembered.

* * *

He is now surrounded by the Forgotten Chop, the Forgotten Loaf of Bread, the Forgotten Bargain, the Forgotten Square Deal, the Forgotten Shirt, the Forgotten Glass of Beer, the Forgotten Roof and the Forgotten Kindly Look.

* * *

The cradlemaker nicks him as much as used to be asked for a five-passenger sedan, the casketmaker rubs it in at the grand finale, and in between he is taken for a mark for stickups, extortionists, sandbaggers, pickpockets and cold-blooded experts in vacuum cleaning.

* * *

The funniest query of the times is, "Do you think we will get serious inflation?"

* * *

Bakers cut the size of the loaf and raise the price!... The fruit man gets as much for one banana as he used to get for a basket of fruit... The restaurant minimum for two is around $5 if you skip the soup and dessert... If you have a couple of cocktails add $2 to $3... Everything you eat, drink or wear keeps soaring... And if you try to forget it all by going fishing you find the charter boats are up to $50 a day! With worms a nickel each!

* * *

Which wouldn't be so bad if the boys didn't chisel on the quality and content. One of the things making communists, if not Anarchists, is the practice the cafe men have of using the thimble-size glass and a double bottom to make sure that the customer gets taken right and that the house does better than ever.

* * *

Whither are we drifting? And aren't we being overcharged for the drift? At what point is mercy to be expected? Or is everybody out to kill the goose that lays the golden egg, hide the feathers and use the webbed feet in a new hat at an extra high price?

* * *

Sock, sock, sock, the boys are marching! With the taxation platoon's fresh levies, front and rear. "Mister, can you spare five bucks? I ain't had nuthin' to eat since breakfast!"

Song for Eric Johnston

Against the Communists am I
With all my heart and soul...
My heart is starred; my soul it has
A good supporting role.

Both do well in the movies, as
A most expensive pair;
No other heart and soul get such
Big billing 'way out there.

"I am no longer responsible for the debts of my wife. George Washington, 908 Liberty Avenue, Brooklyn."—N. Y. Times.

Every day there is some new disillusionment.

Cotton Corners

By Truman Twill

Dear Nephew: We've been making apple butter, probably the silliest thing we ever do around this house but one of the most satisfying. At that, it's no sillier to spend your spare time boiling down apples than it is to go for a horseback ride. Both are old-fashioned, but there's no satisfactory substitute.

The apple knockers around here hit the jackpot on their crop this year. In a couple of the big orchards, where the money comes from the sale of premium stuff, the natives could get all the scrubs they could haul away. Funny thing, by the way, that scrubs always have the best flavor. But free apples only made an excuse for your aunt and me. The truth is, we like to make apple butter.

For pure pleasure in doing it and for extraordinary delight in eating during the long months ahead, nothing pays off so well as a couple vats of our own home-made brand. Making it is sort of a religious rite, the way we see about it. For example, I use nothing but hickory wood mixed with apple, because even if it's only my imagination I still think that blend of smoke tastes better when it gets into the apple butter.

For the cider that we mix with the apples I prefer Baldwin stock, because in my measured judgment nothing tastes so good as Baldwin juice. For the cooking apples, on the other hand, it's my opinion a fellow does best when he mixes them up, bein careful to avoid Greasy Pippins. I do not like Greasy Pippins in my apple butter. They can't be beaten, on the other hand, for fireside eating on cold nights.

We have a stirring paddle that belonged to your Aunt Effie's grandmother. It is made of hickory, and the handle is as smooth and silky as glass. It has been used so long. In case you don't remember how hot that fire gets under the big iron kettle, we have to keep the paddle moving, or it would scorch on the under side. Even with its eight-foot length, we find it necessary to wear veils over our faces to keep from getting scorched ourselves.

The way we work it, the apples are prepared at night and kept till morning in tubs of water. The wood also is split in advance. We start cooking down the first thing in the morning. It's well along in the afternoon before we call it a day. Today was the third day, and we are going to call it quits. We have enough of the best apple butter ever made for ourselves, you folks and maybe 100 Europeans, who probably wouldn't like it if they had it.

Sometimes I think the trouble with Europe is that they've been making too much noise and not enough apple butter, but of course that's the way I'd naturally figure it at the end of three days on the end of that stirring paddle, scared to death your aunt would accuse me of scorching either her precious paddle or our precious apple butter. It has been a lot of fun.

NOW SHE SHOPS "CASH AND CARRY"
Without Painful Backache
Many sufferers believe nagging backache, caused when they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.
When disorder of kidney function permits poisons to remain in your blood, it may cause backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste. Get Doan's Pills.

STATE GRANGE TO MARK DIAMOND ANNIVERSARY

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4—Celebration by the Ohio State Grange of its diamond anniversary, when the organization's 75th annual convention opens Monday, was announced today as a prelude to the National Grange convention which starts next Wednesday.

The Ohio Grange, ranking second for membership in the nation, has 115,000 members, a gain of 9,000 in the past year and an increase of 26,000 over the past five years, State Master Joseph W. Fichter said.

It was announced also that at least one cabinet member, Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson, will address the convention, while U. S. Senator Robert A. Taft, Governor Thomas J. Herbert and Chief Justice Cary V. Weygandt of the Ohio Supreme Court are expected to be present at one or more sessions.

Fichter will deliver the state Grange's keynote address Monday evening and National Master Albert S. Goss will keynote the national meeting Wednesday.

Teacher Out on Bond On Assault Charge

By The Associated Press

NEWPORT, Pa., Nov. 4—A 52-year-old teacher whose one-room schoolhouse was picketed by a group of sign-carrying parents has been released in $750 bond on charges of assault and battery on a six-year-old boy pupil.

Walter Byers was released in bond for arraignment in criminal court Nov. 17 after pleading innocent yesterday before Justice of the Peace Frank Milligan.

The charges were pressed by John Jenkins, who said his son, David, was brought home in a semi-conscious condition with two lumps on his head. Milligan said four other pupils told him Byers had whipped the child because he failed to recite his numbers lesson correctly and laughed when ordered to stand facing the wall.

Byers testified he had spanked the boy but denied the punishment meted out was "too severe."

MRS. WALTER E. HANE entertained with a 1 o'clock luncheon today at Hotel Harding honoring Mrs. Paul Knappenberger of Lakeland, Fla. and Miss Sally Dee of Bellefontaine, a bride-elect of December. For the table, laid in the presidential suite, the hostess chose a color note of pink and rose. Bowls of pink and rose pottery held carnations shading from a pale pink to deep rose and completing the decorative arrangement were pottery fawns in these shades and plumosis. Places were marked with flower-shaped nut baskets in matching hues. The hostess presented each of the honored guests with a gift. Present with Mrs. Knappenberger, who is a former resident of Marion, and Miss Dee also former resident and fiancee of Robert Fair of Kenton, were Mrs. Edwin C. Dee of Bellefontaine, Mrs. Boyd W. Fair of Kenton, Mrs. Dwight W. Mahaffey of Morral, Mrs. James L. Grissinger of Worthington and Mrs. Lawrence E. Pachoud Jr. of Cincinnati.

MISS HENRIETTA FILIATRAULT of Forest Lawn boulevard was hostess when Ohio Eta chapter, Beta Sigma Phi sorority, entertained with a pledge tea Sunday afternoon. Bouquets of fall flowers were used throughout the rooms and the tea table, at which Miss Mary Clark, president, presided, held a centerpiece of yellow chrysanthemums and lighted yellow tapers. A formal initiation and dinner will be held Tuesday evening at Hotel Harding.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Ruby of 478 Uncapher avenue entetrained with a Halloween party Saturday evening at their home for the pleasure of their son, Tommy. Decorations and refreshments were in keeping with the Halloween theme, and horns and paper hats were presented as favors to each of the guests. Present with the host were Paul Jenkins, John Jenkins, Jimmy Roberts, Don Griffin and Billy Barnes.

Mrs. Royal Fields entertained the Homemakers Study club Monday evening, Oct. 27, at her home east of Marion with Mrs. Henry Kelley serving as associate hostess. A Six new members, Mrs. Albert Seckel, Mrs. Francis Fairchild, Mrs. Russell Frayer, Mrs. Howard Lusch, Mrs. Walter Barton and Mrs. Kelley, were welcomed into the club. For the program, Marion's Betty Newton gave a demonstrated talk on "Wifesavers." Contest awards were won by Mrs. Lusch and Mrs. Erma Myers. Refreshments were served in keeping with the Halloween theme. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Charles Howser of east of Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Fail of the Richland pike entertained with a family dinner and kitchen shower for the pleasure of their niece, Mrs. Harry Belcher of Akron, Sunday. Guests included Mrs. Belcher, who was Miss Betty Jo McCombs of Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. Dale McMurray of Lorain, Cecil Wilson of Canton, Jonathan Johns of Mt. Gilead and Mrs. A. P. McMurray and Steward McMurray of Marion.

Fun night has been arranged by the Business and Professional Women's club for entertainment following a dinner meeting at Hotel Harding Wednesday night. The program is under direction of the membership committee headed by Miss Mary Ann Bausinger.

A family dinner Sunday in honor of Moses Packer who planned to leave today for Phoenix, Ariz., to make his home, was held at the home of a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Martin of 376 Quarry street. Present with the honor guest and host and hostess were George Packer and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Massie and children, Augie Rech, Mr. and Mrs. George Packer Jr. and son, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Packer and daughter, Mrs. Cora Packer, Mr. and Mrs. John E. James and son, Duane Packer, all of Marion, and M. H. Packer of Mansfield.

A potluck supper at the home of Carolyn Creager of Lincoln avenue Saturday evening was given by the Duo Decum sorority and honored the sixteenth birthday anniversary of Shirley Geissler. Decorations were in keeping with Halloween and there was a birthday cake. Pumpkin faces were the place markings. In a short business session the following officers were elected: Mary Jean Smith, president; Shirley Geissler, vice president; Carolyn Creager, secretary-treasurer; Erma Morse, chaplain; Roxana Pauling, scrapbook chairman; Barbara Lee, reporter.

TWO COUPLES ANNOUNCE WEDDING ARRANGEMENTS

Announcements of the approaching marriages of Miss Frances Huffman of Green Camp to Billy Johnston of New Bloomington, and Miss Ruth Williams, also of Green Camp, to Paul Dewey Reynolds of Marion, were made when the two brides-elect entertained a small group of friends Wednesday evening, Oct. 29. The guests were invited to the home of Miss Huffman in Green Camp. The announcements were revealed in a guessing box, with Mrs. Roy Marshall identifying the contents. The Huffman-Johnston wedding will take place Nov. 27, and the Williams-Reynolds wedding will be Sunday, Nov. 9. Miss Huffman resides with her grandmother, Mrs. Eliza Huffman, in Green Camp, and Mr. Johnston's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Otis Johnston. Miss Williams is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Williams of Green Camp, and Mr. Reynolds is the son of Mrs. Evelyn Reynolds of South State street.

Personal Mention

Mrs. J. C. Reaguer of Ashland, Ky., returned home Saturday after a week in Marion visiting Mrs. Fred W. Spriggs of Mary street. She is a sister of Mr. Spriggs who has been in New York City several weeks for medical treatment and was removed recently from a hospital in Brooklyn to the home of another sister there.

Ministerial Association Plans Marital Clinic

At a meeting of the Marion County Ministerial association Monday at the Y.M.C.A., plans were made for a marital counselling clinic to aid ministers of Marion and the county in handling marital problems brought to them by married couples, or in counselling engaged couples on marital affairs.

The clinic will be held Nov. 19 at the Y.M.C.A. at 1:30 p. m., with Dr. Floyd Foust, pastor of the Broad Street Church of Christ in Columbus, a specialist in this particular field, in charge.

Union Thanksgiving service this year will be held in First Presbyterian church the Wednesday night before Thanksgiving, Nov. 26. Announcement was made of presentation of "The Messiah," Handel's Christmas oratorio, by the Marion Civic chorus Monday night, Dec. 8. Mrs. E. N. Hale, director, requested cooperation of ministers in urging members of their choirs to participate in the oratorio program. Rehearsals will be held each Sunday afternoon before the presentation date, at 3:30, with the first practice set for Sunday at Epworth Methodist church.

For a program, Rev. Eldred Johnston reviewed part of the book "The Testament of Devotion," by Kelly, in line with the general program theme of "The Minister and His Devotions."

A capacity turnout is anticipated for the annual dinner meeting of the Marion Chamber of Commerce to be held in the Hotel Harding ballroom at 6:30 p. m. Armistice day.

Speakers will be the Hon. Josh Lee, member of the Civil Aeronautics Board and former United States Senator from Oklahoma. His topic will be "Aviation and a Brave New World."

Mr. Lee, author of the new book "How to Hold an Audience Without a Rope" is an outstanding humorous, informative and inspirational speaker.

Dinner reservations will be accepted at the Chamber of Commerce until Friday.

DRAMATIC ARTIST IN VARIED PROGRAM TONIGHT

A program of wide variety of subject matter will be presented tonight by Miriam Marmein, known as "America's first lady of pantomime and dramatic dance," at Thomas A. Edison Junior High school and auditorium. The concert is sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's club through the Collins management of Rochester, N. Y.

Included on the program will be "Pierrot Encounters the Doctor," in which the traditional clown meets a diagnostician and fancies he has every possible ailment; "Marine Fantasy," Miss Marmein's interpretation of the movement of the subjective soul of man hidden in the deep recesses of his unrealized being; "Garcon," a French waiter performing the duties of his calling; "The Daughter of Herodias," dance of Salome before King Herod and her request for "the Baptist's head"; "And So to Bed," beauty ritual of a glamor girl; "Death of the First Born," a Bethlehem mother attempting to save her firstborn son from slaughter by soldiers under Herod's order; "Judas," Iscariot's covenanting with chief priests for silver in return for betrayal of Christ, his remorse and suicide; "But a Woman's Work," a 1776 version of the hired help problem; "The Fountain"; and "Get Your Man," an 1892 version of "a Miss who would be a Mrs."

The concert will begin at 8 o'clock. Single admission tickets will be available at the door.

GRAIN SHIPMENTS TO FOREIGN PORTS LISTED

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4 — A total of 2,402,786 bushels of grain has left the port of Philadelphia for foreign ports during October, says John H. Frazier, managing director of the commercial exchange.

Frazier said yesterday most of the October shipments were bound for western Europe although some went to Greece, India, South Africa, Egypt, Arabia and Venezuela. The October figure included 237,180 bushels of oats with the remainder being wheat.

Transport Reports Sea Rescue of 30

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 4—The Coast Guard said today that the army transport John Stafford reported it had rescued a crew of 30 men from the three-master Portuguese schooner Maria Carlota, which radioed last night that it was sinking in mid-Atlantic.

The 230-ton schooner was set afire by its crew and left adrift, the Coast Guard said.

Report on Co-Ops

Wiggins presented the committee a treasury study on taxation of co-ops which said:

1. Making them pay income tax on their "patronage dividends" or "refunds" would not necessarily change their competitive position because many of them could get around the tax by lowering prices.

2. Repealing the general income tax exemption now enjoyed by more than 5,000 co-ops would "impose relatively little tax" on them if the patronage dividends or refunds were left tax free.

Even before the Magill committee reported, there was criticism of it.

Justice Dept. Gives Taft-Hartley Rulings

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4 — The justice department today told the supreme court the Taft-Hartley act does not take from the national labor relations board the power to order reinstatment of discharged foremen.

At the same time, in a separate case, the department said the new law requires nullification of a recent supreme court decision that Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp., must recognize the CIO steelworkers union as the bargaining agent of plant guards.

SAYS JAP POSITION BETTER

By The Associated Press

TOKYO, Nov. 4—Col. Robert R. McCormick, publisher of the Chicago Tribune, today told Prime Minister Tetsu Katayama that antipathies against Japan are fading and "time is working in your interest."

The publisher, here on a tour of the Orient, told the prime minister he would "do what I can to improve conditions." His conversation with Katayama followed luncheon with the Japanese cabinet at the prime minister's official residence.

DISTRICT MEETING HELD BY MACHINISTS

350 Attend Session in Central Labor Hall.

Attendance at a meeting of District Lodge No. 59, International Association of Machinists, in Marion Sunday afternoon, was approximately 350, with delegates and visitors present from Cleveland, Columbus, Kenton, Mt. Gilead, Marysville, Galion, Crestline, Bucyrus and Marion. The meeting was held in Central Labor Union hall in East Church street. Speakers were Elmer E. Walker of Cleveland general vice president of the IAM, and Edward Wiggins of Columbus, business representative of District No. 52.

Wilbur Highland of Marion, district vice president, presided. Reports were given by business representatives and lodge officers.

Mr. Walker spoke on the program sponsored by the educational department of IAM for benefit of local and district lodges.

Mr. Wiggins spoke briefly on welfare of the IAM, and urged building up of women's auxiliary lodges. Following adjournment, delegates were guests of Roosevelt Lodge No. 1281 for lunch served by the local Ladies' auxiliary.

Board Approves Junior High Games at Armory

Bills in the amount of $13,802.02 were approved at the monthly meeting of the City board of education yesterday afternoon in the school administration building. Making up the major part of the expenditures were building repairs in the amount of $6,154.85, coal $1,321, and text books $1,977.81.

Approval also was given for the rental of the Armory for Central Junior High school basketball games this season. Other matters of business included the increasing by $764,000 the insurance on the city school buildings. This brings the total insurance on school buildings and contents to $1,965,200. Increase in the insurance was deemed advisable in the face of increased cost in replacing losses.

40 ET 8 SEATS NEW OFFICERS

Police Chief W. E. Marks Installed as Chef de Gare of Voiture No. 48.

Officers headed by Police Chief William E. Marks, were installed at a meeting of Marion Voiture No. 48, 40 et 8, last night at the American Legion dugout. Bruce A. McDaniel of Toledo, grand chef of the grand voiture of Ohio presided as the installing officer. The business meeting was preceded by a dinner in the Marion club at Hotel Harding.

Mr. McDaniel conducted the ceremony dedicating the voiture colors acquired this year by the organization, and presented a past chef de gare pin to Norval V. Foreman. For the dedication the National and voiture colors were displayed by Mr. Foreman and the newly-elected chef de gare, Chief Marks. A memorial service was conducted by Harry Ruth, who was to have served as cheminot of the Waldo voiture, and whose death occurred recently. In accepting the leadership of the voiture Chief Marks asked the cooperation and support of the members.

Installed with Chief Marks were the following: Albert Dripps, chef de train; Roy Waddell, commissaire intendant; Clifford Chapman, conducteur; Wilson Blue, sous conducteur; M. D. Shafer of Carey, correspondent; William Arndt, garde de la porte; W. R. Martin, advocate; C. B. Morris, commis voyageur; Richard Burkley, voyageur premier; Charles Mead, voyageur duexime; H. A. Hoopes, amonier; Frank Bowem, lampiste; Tom Campbell Jr., drapeau; Charles Howard, historian. Richard Burkley was installed as cheminot of Bird-McGinnis Post No. 162, George Bender as cheminot of Cardington post and Charles Gillespie as cheminot of LaRue Post.

It was voted to send a resolution to the Voiture Nationale, asking that more than one award be made to locomotives and box cars entered in the national convention parades. Plans also were made to take the voiture's locomotive and box car to Xenia for the field day exercises Nov. 15. Members of the women's auxillary will be invited to accompany the members to Xenia.

D. J. MacDonald, vice commander of District No. 6, American Legion, was toastmaster for the dinner program. Mr. McDaniel, grand chef, in a brief talk, explained the program as outlined to the date of the meeting of the grand cheminots in December. In discussing veterans activities he emphasized supporting the Legion membership drive, the child welfare program and the voiture membership.

Following his discussion of the veterans' work he spoke briefly on the international picture and the part the veterans organizations can take in defending and preservig the United States as a free country.

Mr. MacDonald presented Miss Hallie Houck, a member of the Bird-McGinnis Post, John Moore, commander of the post, T. E. Kinnear, who was in charge of arrangements for the dinner Chief Marks, Dr. H. A. Hoopes, J. W. Llewellyn, Col. Hubert L. Taylor, M. D. Shafer of Carey, former commander of the Fifth district and Norval V. Foreman, all of whom spoke briefly.

VETS' TRAINING IS AVAILABLE

OSES Manager Cites Openings for Marion Men To Learn Trade.

Fred B. Scherff, manager of the local OSES office, today issued an appeal to all World War II veterans to take advantage of the opportunities under the G. I. Bill of Rights to learn a skill or trade and receive remuneration from their employer plus government subsistence equal to the remuneration he would receive if he were an experienced worker. Mr. Scherff said this is an opportunity for veterans of World War II not planning on entering college to acquire a skill on the job and be paid while learning.

Veterans Eligible

Veterans of World War II who have been honorably discharged are eligible for this training. Training must be initiated not later than July 25, 1951, and in no case after July, 1956.

At the present time Marion has openings on on-the-job training courses for assemblers or erectors, machine operators, molders and welders. Veterans entering these courses must have had at least one year of military service after September 16, 1940. The length of training is two years, but some veterans are able to complete their training in a shorter length of time. In fact, 18 veterans in Marion have completed training in less than two years, Mr. Scherff reported.

Included in the course is a 30-day or 160-hour training period at the Harding High School vocational shop. Married men are permitted to receive $200 a month which includes wages and government subsistence while learning. Single men are permitted to receive $175.

Aptitude Tests

Applicants desiring training for machine shop operators, molders and welders are given aptituude measuring exercises by the Ohio State Employment Service to determine whether or not the applicant possesses aptitudes to learn these particular skills.

To date 191 veterans have received on-the-job training in Marion. Present openings are in a well-established Marion industry affording many opporunities for advancement after the completion of the training.

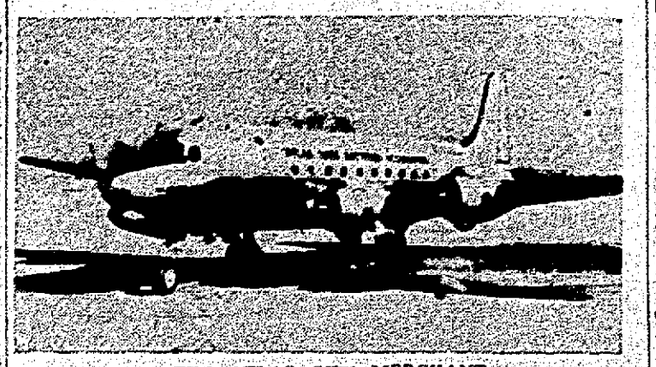
MARION GROUP FLY IN "SKY MERCHANT"



THE ATLAS SKY MERCHANT

When the "Atlas Sky Merchant" arrives at the municipal airport in Mansfield from Cleveland Wednesday, five Marion men will be aboard. Making the trip will be Mayor Harry L. Dowler, J. P. Sharkey, division manager of the Standard Oil Co., C. H. Bachelder, assistant division manager, E. O. Uncapher, city service-safety director and Robert T. Mason, president of the Marion Chamber of Commerce.

The party will leave Marion early Wednesday in a Standard Oil Co. plane and fly to Cleveland, where they will board the Sky Merchant for the trip to Mansfield. The plane is expected to arrive at the Mansfield airport at 11 a. m. The public is invited to inspect the huge DC-4 airplane, sponsored on its visit in Ohio by the Standard Oil Co., and open house will be observed from 3:30 to 7 p. m.

The "Sky Merchant" has been in Ohio for the last several weeks and has visited airports in Zanesville, Akron, Cincinnati, Dayton, Cleveland and other cities. The stop at Mansfield will conclude the Ohio tour.

One of the features of the Sky Merchant that arouses enthusiasm everywhere is its two-way radio telephonic communication with the ground through regular telephone exchanges. While in flight or on the ground, any business or home telephone may be called. The plane also has up-to-date radio navigation aids, and devices to insure safe operation even under inclement weather conditions.

51 MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED HERE IN OCTOBER

A total of 51 marriage licenses were issued in probate court during the month of October while 25 divorce suits were filed in common pleas court. During October, 15 cases were heard with seven divorces being granted to husbands and four granted to wives. Four actions were dismissed. Records in the office of the clerk of courts show five children were given the custody of their mothers while one woman was restored her former name.

LEGION LAYS PLANS FOR ESSAY CONTEST

Event Is Part of Extensive Child Welfare Program.

"How Can the United Nations Become More Effective" is a question some of the best political and legal minds in the world, have, for the last year, been trying to answer. That subject is the topic of an essay contest for the nation's school children of the ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades sponsored by the American Legion. Essays will be graded according to originality, value of thought, sequence of thought, and adherence to title.

In the midst of a campaign for membership, Bird-McGinnis Post 162, American Legion, of this city, is endeavoring to acquaint the citizens of Marion and former servicemen with Legion activities as concerned chiefly with child welfare. Newton Cunningham, first vice president is in charge of the membership drive. Boys State, the Americanism essay contest, and the American Legion Junior Baseball teams are three of the many programs on tap to promote child welfare.

The Americanism essay contest first originated in 1935 during the term of Ohio Department Commander William S. Konold. The subject for that year was "Why I Am Glad I Am an American." Four boys and two girls emerged as winners and were given a trip to Washington, D. C. Since that day in 1935, the contest has grown in enthusiasm as well as in size, becoming a national contest now, sponsored by state American Legion departments, and annually thousands of American boys and girls strive to become the winners. The trip to the nation's capital the winners receive now is an education in itself.

Limited now to the high school grades, Bird-McGinnis Post announces that it will inform the heads of the different schools throughout the city as to the rules and date of the contest.

One boy and one girl will be selected from the Marion schools as the city winners to be judged among the county, district, and then state winners for national recognition.

PROSPECT BOARD MEETS

Fall board meeting of the Prospect Baptist Mission circles was held last week at the home of Mrs. Archie Cochran in Prospect. Plans were made to hold a chicken sandwich, noodle soup dinner in the church basement Nov. 8 from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. Arrangements were made to have carry-out service. Mrs. Cochran requested that food be brought to the church by 1 p.m. Saturday.

Now It Can Be Told!

1. On Wednesday night, October 22, 375 employees of the North Electric Manufacturing Company were imprisoned for 9 hours by a mob collected from outside the city of Galion.

   At the request of a representative of the Adjutant General's office of Ohio, the Company entered into a truce with the Union for the sole purpose of obtaining peaceful release of these imprisoned employees.

2. In accordance with this truce the Company and the Union met in Galion on Monday morning for the purpose of discussing the labor situation arising from the strike of employees organized by the U.A.W.-C.I.O. at the Galion plant. These meetings were not for the purpose of, nor designed to, negotiate a collective bargaining agreement. The Union representatives agreed, when the truce was made, that the purpose of the meeting should be "to discuss the labor situation."

3. The North Electric Manufacturing Company has always insisted that the wishes of its employees can be expressed in the American manner only by a secret ballot. At these meetings the Company demanded a secret ballot.

   On the contrary the Union insisted that the wishes of the employees at this time should be ascertained by a check of the membership cards which they secured largely before August 19.

4. The present agreement entered into by the Company and the Union PRESERVES the right of election by secret ballot in order to determine what Union the majority of the employees want.

   If the employees of the North Electric Manufacturing Company want an election by secret ballot they can have it by filing a petition with the National Labor Relations Board for such secret ballot election.

   The so-called cross-check provided by this agreement has no effect whatever if the employees desire a petition for an election by secret ballot.

   THE COMPANY HAS NEVER SURRENDERED THE RIGHT OF ITS EMPLOYEES TO SECURE AN ELECTION BY SECRET BALLOT.

   Statements to the contrary made in the newspapers were obviously due to misunderstandings by reporters. These misunderstandings arose because the Company was bound to hold the contract confidential until it was passed upon by the Union. The Company has always, and will always, observe its agreements.

5. THE COMPANY NOW STATES PUBLICLY IN THE MOST POSITIVE MANNER POSSIBLE THAT IT WILL NEGOTIATE AT ANY TIME A COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENT WITH WHATEVER UNION OF WHATEVER CHARACTER THAT SHOWS BY SECRET BALLOT ELECTION THAT IT SPEAKS FOR A MAJORITY OF THE COMPANY EMPLOYEES.

   THE LAW OF THE LAND GIVES THE RIGHT TO EMPLOYEES TO ORGANIZE IN ANY UNIT OF THEIR CHOOSING, EITHER AFFILIATED OR NOT WITH A NATIONAL ORGANIZATION.

What Could Be Fairer Than the Company's Position in Democratic Labor Relations?

PLAYMATE'S SLAYING BRINGS GRIEF. A mother and her 12-year-old son, who has confessed, police say, to the slaying of Lonnie Fellick, 7, during an argument, present a dramatic picture of grief at police headquarters in Chicago. The mother is Mrs. Alma Lang. Her accused son, Howard, 12, has signed a confession to the slaying, according to police.

WINANT

Theodore Roosevelt who ran for President on the Progressive ticket.

When the United States entered World War I Mr. Winant, who had learned to fly, said to a friend, "I am enlisting — here is all the money I have—pay my bills and please settle my affairs if I don't come back." The friend found that most of the money Winant owed was for milk he had been buying for poor families in Concord.

In the air corps Mr. Winant rose from private to captain and was cited for gallantry under fire. After demobilization he married the wealthy Constance Rivington Russell of Princeton, returned to New Hampshire and, at the age of 30, plunged into politics in earnest.

Their son, First Lieut. John G. Winant, Jr., who like his father was a flier, was shot down with his Flying Fortress on a raid on Muenster, Germany, in the fall of 1943. It was his 13th combat mission. Several weeks later it developed he was a prisoner of war in Germany.

Mr. Winant was an Episcopalian.

Memory of Winant Honored in Britain

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Nov. 4 — Britain mourned the death of former United States Ambassador John G. Winant today as the loss of a friend who shared this nation's suffering in war and her joy in victory.

Little more than the bare announcement of his tragic end arrived in time for the morning press, but London evening newspapers gave it front page, banner line prominence.

The Evening Star called him a "war casualty" in its headlines.

The Evening Standard recalled his words in 1941 of the British people: "You have said so little—you have done so much. It is all part of a soldier's faith—to have known great things and to be content with silence."

And the paper added: "Those words could be applied to Winant himself."

200 Attend Service Of Maranatha Church

More than 200 persons attended Sunday afternoon the first service of worship of the Maranatha Bible church in the new church home on South State street. The church building was purchased recently from the First Church of the Nazarene congregation. Dr. T. Richard Dunham, pastor of the Calvary Bible church in Findlay, was the speaker, and other guests taking part were Rev. Lanne Beausay of the Gospel chapel at Upper Sandusky, who gave greetings and read Scripture, and Arnold Ferrel and Miss Phyllis Ann Beausay who sang. Mrs. Wilona Gustin was pianist. Rev. Earl L. Holliday is pastor.

Plans are being made to conduct a one-night evangelistic service each Thursday night through November and December. The first of these meetings will be this week, with Rev. H. Max Good of Soul's Harbor in Columbus as the speaker. He will bring a corps of his workers.

Oldsters Given OK for Jobs

People Over 65 Able To Do Good Day's Work, Survey Shows.

By The United Press

ALBANY, N. Y. — More than 250,000 "old folks" are employed at present in New York state, State Sen. Thomas C. Desmond reports.

Desmond seeks to refute "one of the cruelest fallacies of our time"—that people over 65 years of age can't do a good day's work.

Employment in the above-65 age group has jumped 51 per cent since 1940, says Desmond, chairman of the state's legislative committee on problems of the aged.

"In 1940, there were 168,000 persons 65 years of age or more working in this state; today, there are 254,000 employed elderly," he said.

The generalization that elderly people can't do a good day's work was disproved time and again during the recent war, Desmond points out.

"Furthermore, scientists specializing in old age inform me that mere aging of workers is no reason for industry to throw them on the dump-heap of unemployment or into the quicksands of retirement," he continued.

State Survey Begun

In fact, the Desmond committee is beginning a state-wide survey of company pension plans with the idea of possibly varying their requirements to meet individual ability.

Dr. Edward J. Stieglitz of Washington, an adviser to Desmond's committee, emphasizes that "premature retirement while still vigorous, ambitious and anxious to serve, can be a major disaster." Stieglitz contends that elderly people can be taught "new tricks" if they are willing to learn and have smart teachers.

Another false idea, which Desmond claims is current among business men, is that old-timers are involved in more accidents.

"The fact is that about two-thirds of all industrial accidents occur among those under 45, and that the greatest number of accidents occur among the 20-24 age group," his committee found.

Six Discoveries Made

The committee made six major discoveries in its study:

1. Two out of nine oldsters in the state are now in the "labor force," able and willing to work.

2. Ninety-five per cent of the old folks in the labor force are now employed.

3. Twice as many of our oldsters are employed as receive old age assistance.

4. Once out of five oldsters now employed is a woman.

5. Chances of an oldster being employed are better upstate than in New York City.

6. Thirty per cent of the working oldsters normally are proprietors, managers, officials, salesmen, or clerks. Fifteen per cent are farmers; another 13 per cent work in crafts and trades.

"Oldsters 75 and over in this state," Desmond adds, "are working as actors, artists, authors, chemists, clergymen, physicians, musicians, manufacturers, insurance agents, carpenters, compositors, social workers, lawyers and even as sailors and college presidents. And one old-timer, in the 65-74 age bracket, listed himself as an 'apprentice'."

GAMBLER FOUND SLAIN

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, Nov. 4—The rope-trussed body of 35-year-old Gust Andromalos, described by police as a gambler, was found today in the trunk of his automobile on an East Side street. Officers said acquaintances told them he had $30,000 in his pockets in a downtown coffee house district Oct. 29. The only money found on the body was two pennies, although the fingers bore two large diamond rings.

NEW TRIAL ORDERED

T. R. BRANDING IRON FOUND

By The Associated Press

MEDORA, N. D.—A rusty branding iron in the form of a Maltese cross, once the property of the late Theodore Roosevelt, has been found on the Elkhorn bottoms near here. Nearby was the long-dead ash of a branding fire ignited years ago by one of the ex-president's ranch hands. The branding iron was turned over to the state museum.

"Mechanical Cow" Gives "Milk" for Overseas GI's

By The United Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4—The Army came up with a "mechanical cow" today as its solution for a better substitute for fresh milk for overseas troops.

The army said it has found a method to combine mechanically powdered milk with butter, oil and water.

The advantages, the Army said, are that the dry ingredients may be shipped to such places as Guam, Okinawa and Korea where fresh milk is hard to get and there may be stored for long periods until mixed.

The new milk beverage is "highly acceptable," the Army said, and resembles fresh milk better than any previous concoction.

Lack of fresh milk is one of the biggest "gripes" of soldiers stationed in the Pacific. Soldires in Europe get milk from Danish dairy farms.

MAN IS APPREHENDED IN BLAINE AVE. CHASE

A man who fled the home of relatives on Senate street was apprehended on Blaine avenue about 1:40 a. m. yesterday and held by police as a mental case. His seizure in the Blaine avenue area between Center and Columbia streets caused considerable commotion in the community. Police Chief W. E. Marks, however, contradicted a report that shots had been fired.

In probate court yesterday relatives made arrangements to return the man to Lewes, Del.

MAYOR BURKE EXPECTED TO WIN IN CLEVELAND

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Nov. 4—Mayor Thomas A. Burke was a strong favorite to retain his $15,000-a-year post in his election duel today with Eliot Ness, 44-year-old former city safety director.

Although a 5 to 1 betting favorite, Burke urged his supporters not "to become overconfident" and asserted "our opponents are spending tremendous sums of money to win."

Ness, in a pre-election radio address hammered away at his favorite theme—safety on the streets.

Ohio Welfare Group Urged To Help Aged

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4—A New York psychologist urged social workers to give as much help to the aged as to the young.

Dr. Georgue Lawton declared in a talk prepared for the opening session of the 47th annual Ohio Welfare conference that "social work is of limited effectiveness if it concentrates on helping the individual get a good start and does not see to it that he has a chance to fulfil the promise of this good start."

"Harvesting is as important as sowing," he said. "Social workers should become as good harvesters as they are sowers."

Dr. Lawton was the first of five general speakers here to address 3,000 social workers, public and private, attending the annual review of the welfare problems of the state and its communities.

UN Director Reports Bread Cereal Shortage

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4—The world's supplies of bread cereals are 10,000,000 tons short of the amount needed to maintain present rations, Sir John Boyd Orr, director-general of the food and agriculture organization of the United Nations, said today.

"The situation," he said, "can be met only by an increase in total world food production. The increase which the world needs must come mainly from the rehabilitation and agriculture in the war-devastated countries and from the expansion of the underdeveloped countries."

Start Work on First Building at Kent U.

By The United Press

KENT, Nov. 4—Ground was to be broken yesterday for the first building in a $1,800,000 construction program at Kent State university.

The program, the first undertaken here since 1940, includes a student center and classroom building to cost about $800,000; a men's dormitory at $800,000 and a student health center costing about $230,000.

The building program is scheduled for completion March 21, 1949.

struction in the next four years, if even a much weakened Soviet economic stranglehold is to be prevented from closing again.

Power development, agriculture and forestry improvement, new industries to replace key plants lost to the Soviets, will all be needed to guarantee Austria's real independence. More probably the Soviets will reject any reasonable bargain at London. Then the Austrians will probably ask the Western powers to liquidate military government in their zones, but to leave their troops in Austria as a protection for the state until the Russians go. They will also ask increased relief and rehabilitation allowances, to help their people through the hard time of the continued resistance. Finally there is the possibility that the Soviets will go even further, dividing Austria and refusing to recognize the government's authority in their zone. But no one likes even to speculate on this possibility. For such drastic Russian action will clearly imply active Russian preparation for early world conflict. All these are sobering thoughts for any American. Austria is one of the key points in the Western world, whether strategically or politically or militarily. Americans have the largest share of responsibility for the degree of Austrian freedom that exists today. As to the future, under each of the alternatives set forth above America is also destined to play the leading role. The responsibilities of preponderant resources and power can only be shirked at the expense of new and bigger Munichs. That is the Austrian moral.

Your Good Health

Disorder Which Soldiers Brought from Tropical Areas.

Because so many American soldiers were stationed in tropical areas during the war, it is important for all of us to become familiar with the symptoms of a disorder called amebiasis, also known as amebic dysentery.

We have always had carriers of the disease in this country but their number is now greatly increased due to the war. It is estimated that among troops stationed in certain areas, 18 to 25 per cent developed amebic dysentery. Of course, many were treated and cured but many others returned home without realizing they had the disease.

The danger is now that unless we are on the alert, these men may unwittingly pass it to others until it becomes widespread.

Caused by a parasite called endamoeba histolytica, amebiasis is peculiar in that it may cause mild symptoms in many people, while affecting others very severely or even fatally. These fatal cases are unusually due to liver abscesses or ulcers of the bowel which sometimes develop when the disease is neglected.

The first signs of amebic dysentery in many instances is pain in the abdomen together with diarrhea or frequent bowel movements. To make a definite diagnosis the parasites must be found in the stools and it takes a specially trained laboratory expert to recognize them.

The treatment which physicians gave was first to put the patient to bed, preferably in a hospital. Then a drug known as emetine hydrochloride was given daily by injection under the skin for seven days when the patient had liver abscesses. Sometimes the patient was given another drug known as carbarsone, three times daily for ten days by mouth.

If diarrhea was present, the diet was limited in bulky foods and roughage. Severe diarrhea was treated with such things as paregoric.

While receiving the emetine, the patients were kept in bed.

If any heart damage was thought to be present, electrocardiograms or electrical tracings of the heart beat were taken before and during treatment while the blood pressure was checked twice a day.

On the eighth, ninth, and tenth days, the stools were examined for presence of the amebae. If none was found and the patients were free of symptoms, they were then given an iodine-containing preparation known as diodoquin, three times a day for fourteen days.

On the other hand, if after the completion of the emetine and carbarsone treatment, the parasites were still found in the stools and moderate or severe symptoms were still present, the patients were given a substance known as vioform rather than the diodoquin. As a rule, this procedure brought about a cure, but in some cases in which the symptoms persisted, it was necessary to repeat the entire procedure, after a suitable rest period of three to four weeks.

After completing the treatment the patients were advised to have their stools examined at intervals of one to three months just to make sure that there was no recurrence.

Of course, the earlier treatment of amebiasis is started, the better will be the results.

Persons who have such symptoms as pain in the abdomen and diarrhea should bear in mind the possibility of amebiasis as a cause for the difficulty and have tests made at once so that, if present, the disease can be treated early.

Galion Lutherans Hold Reformation Service

GALION—Galion's three Lutheran churches joined at Senior High school auditorium Sunday morning for the second annual joint meeting in commemoration of the birthday of the Lutheran church and the beginning of Protestantism. Churches joining in this reformation service were First Lutheran, Peace Lutheran, and Trinity Lutheran. Respective pastors of the three congregations are Rev. Herbert S. Garnes Jr., Rev. Philip E. Auer and Rev. Henry Young.

Dr. George W. Miley, president of the Synod of Ohio of the United Lutheran church, was guest speaker. A choir of 50 voices under the direction of Mrs. R. M. Pounder comprised members of the three churches. Offering went to Lutheran World Action for spiritual and physical relief of those suffering in the war-torn countries.

The average age of U. S. senators in 1947 was more than 55 years.

STATE TO AID VETS

ATLANTA, Ga.—The state veterans board is studying a proposal to set up a "baby RFC" to make $5,000 in loans to World War II veterans on a low-interest, long-term basis. The program was authorized by the 1947 state legislature.

SAVES CASH, LOSES PANTS

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill.—Cecil G. Nutter recently saved his wallet from three bandits. However, he lost his trousers and some other things in doing so. Nutter was out walking one night. The bandits drew up to him in an automobile and forced Nutter to enter the car. Nutter tossed his wallet out of the window. The angered thieves took Nutter's trousers, one of his shoes, his gold pocket watch and his eyeglasses.

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

...DDED an afterthought to ...exiled Princess of Trans- ...as I put my hand on the ...of the door leading from ...library to the living room.

"Do not hurry your reading," I ...d. "There as much time as you ...My husband, your mother ...your stepfather, are having a ...old-fashioned visit in our ...room, Mary is safely asleep, ...Faith, and Mrs. Bickett is ...on the couch in Mary's ... And I shall be glad of an ...opportunity to sit quietly in your ...room and pull myself to- ...after the excitement of the ...evening."

"Thank you," she replied. "I ...to read this letter slowly, ...more than once."

"As many times as you like," I ...her, and then I closed the ...door after me and went into the ...living room.

But not to solitude. Noel must ...have been watching from his own ...room, for it was but a minute ...after I sat down in one of Olga's ...beautiful and comfortable arm- ...chairs that Mary's husband came ...through the door opposite that ...leading into the library, and I ...knew that he had been in his own ...room as I had asked him to be.

"I did what you asked," he said; ...went to my own room. But I ...have been watching for you to ...come back here."

He twisted his fingers together, ...and his voice suddenly was rau- ...ous and shaken.

"I thought I could be indiffer- ...ent," he said, "but I can't. Will ...you tell me what news there is ...of Georges?"

I looked at him steadily for fully ...ten seconds and was glad to see ...his eyes drop from mine abashed.

"Yes, Noel," I said at last, slow- ...ly and purposely putting a bit of ...chill in my voice, "I will tell you ...my news, if you will tell me how ...much of Georges possibly can con- ...cern you."

When at last he lifted his eyes ...to mine, they were filled with ...misery.

"You ought to know," he said, "I ...don't want to have anything dis- ...turb Mary, and you know the way ...Georges always acts when he is ...anywhere near her. Tell me, ...please, is he back in New York?"

"Yes, he is in the city," I said. "But that need not give you the least concern. It is not planned that neither you or Mary should see him."

"Thank God for that!" he ex- ...claimed. Then, as the import of ...my words struck him, his eye- ...brows narrowed, in a fashion ludi- ...crously like that of his father.

"Why is that?" he queried. "Does anybody think either Mary or I is afraid to see him?"

My hands tingled to take him by the shoulders and shake some sense into him, as the members of a former generation used to express it. But I kept my voice even and muted. I wanted to take no chance of Olina's hearing our col- ...loquy.

"That quaint idea has not oc- ...curred to anyone," I said, and was glad to see Noel flush at the barb.

"I think I had better tell you everything that has happened," I went on. "But I must hurry. I do not wish Olina to come in and find you here. She thinks I am alone."

"Where is she?" he asked, and I knew the question was put simply because, in his embarrassment, he could think of nothing else to say.

"In her room, reading a letter which I brought her from Georges," I said.

"Then you have seen him," he said. "Is—is he coming here to the hotel?"

"No, he is not," I said a bit curt- ...ly. "If you will listen, Noel, I will tell you everything I knew about Georges."

"I am sorry," he said contritely. "I will not interrupt again."

I wanted to snarl: "See that you don't!", but, instead, I man- ...aged the imitation of a smile and began my saga of Georges' return, his mission, the thwarting of Otto's plan to give the secret of the Transvanian royal treasure to a dangerous woman spy, a friend of Otto's mistress, Laura; of the necessity of hiding Georges at Sag Harbor, of his desire for an immediate marriage, and of my father's plan to camouflage the necessarily secret wedding with a publicized house party given by the Richard Grahams for the Philip Veritzens at the Sag Har- ...bor farmhouse, for the purpose of discussing my play.

When I had finished, Noel gave a sigh which seemed to come from his shoe soles.

"I suppose that means," he said, "that Mary and I will have to be there."

G.O.P. LEADERS MAP EUROPEAN AID PLAN

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4—Pros- ...pective Republican limitations on the Marshall plan began to take form today with a demand from Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) that the administration submit a "total bill" for worldwide aid proposals.

Vandenberg's assertion that "we cannot indefinitely underwrite the world," drew attention to a grow- ...ing framework of requirements upon which the G.O.P. majority in congress may insist before it ap- ...proves any plan for economic help to Europe.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) already has said the cost of such aid ought to be limited to $4,500,000,000 in the next year. Senator White of Maine, the G.O.P. floor leader, told a reporter he thinks other party members will have "quite a few ideas of their own" when the special session begins consid- ...ering the program Nov. 17.

"I think the Republicans are going to be keenly interested in how the program is administered," White said. "I hope the President will send up a reasonable proposal that both sides can agree on. If he does, I believe that congress will act quickly, so that the decks can be cleared to attack domestic problems."

Mr. Truman also has called for action to halt a domestic in- ...flationary spiral, but White indi- ...cated this subject may be laid aside temporarily for debate on the aid program.

Electronics at Work In Testing of Foods

By The United Press

GENEVA, N. Y.—Scientists at the state agricultural experiment station here and the Cornell agri- ...cultural experiment station, Ithi- ...ca, are at work adapting elec- ...tronics for use in research experi- ...ments on foodstuffs.

At Ithica, Prof. Alexis L. Ro- ...manoff has produced a successful electronic egg grader. The new grader, Prof. Romanoff said, is close to 100 per cent accurate, while former candling systems have been only about 75 per cent accurate.

Prof. James C. Moyer, working at the Geneva station, says it is possible to use electronics to de- ...stroy vitamin-killing enzymes in vegetables without loss of min- ...erals or the vitamins themselves. The process, he explained, could be particularly valuable in can- ...ning or freezing vegetables.

"We are investigating the use of this mode of heating for lanch- ...ing vegetables, with the hope we can reduce water-soluble losses and produce processed foods with higher vitamin and mineral con- ...tent," he said.

For example, when shredded cabbage was heated in steam and water, between 30 and 40 per cent of the food's vitamin C was lost by the time the enzyme was de- ...stroyed. When the cabbage was heated electroncally, the enzyme was destroyed with only a 3 per cent loss of vitamin C, he explained.

OHIO JUDGE NAMED TO HEAD NEW PEACE GROUP

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Nov. 4—A new organization backing world peace said today it would seek the sup- ...port of a half million Clevelanders.

Formation of the group, called World Security Workers, was an- ...nounced yesterday along with election of Federal Judge Robert N. Wilkin as chairman.

Members said it would foster plans for creation of a world gov- ...ernment with power to prevent war and "mass destruction."

VET STUDENTS GET CHECKS

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4—The veterans administration reported that the first subsistence checks of the school year had been mailed to 55,520 Ohio student veterans. The VA said another 9,500 former GI's should receive their first checks not later than Nov. 10.

An announcement was also made of the meeting of the United Veterans and Civic Council to be held tonight in the Navy club rooms.

HALLOWEEN PARTY HELD AT CAMPBELL SCHOOL

A Halloween party for the pupils of the Campbell school was held Halloween night at the school building by members of the Campbell School Community club. Pumpkin faces, candles and orange and black streamers draped from the lights decorated the room, which was lighted by oil lamps and lanterns, giving a wierd effect for the occasion. Prizes for costumes were won by Jack Green, most original, Joyce Willey, funniest, Judy Campbell and Richard Bentley, most beau- ...tiful, as twins, Bonnie Lust, ugliest, and Jack LaMarr, dressed as a girl, could not be identified. Contest winners were Margie Par- ...sell and Harry Johnston. Refresh- ...ments were served in keeping with the Halloween theme. The committee in charge was com- ...posed of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bentley and Mrs. Robert Williams, with all parents attending, assist- ...ing.

Rain in Nebraska Aids Winter Wheat

By The Associated Press

The weather was cloudy and rainy, with temperatures about normal, over the northern half of the country today, while snow and below freezing temperatures were reported in Montana.

Rain fell in sections of central Nebraska, aiding the winter wheat crop. North Platte reported a fall measuring one-half inch and Val- ...entine .27 of an inch. Rain was general in the North Atlantic states, with the heaviest falls in Pennsylvania.

FIRST AID TO AILING HOUSE

—By ROGER C. WHITMAN—

Oil Tank Sinking Into Ground

Q. What should I do about my oil tank? It is under the front porch on dirt ground. Heavy rains have softened the dirt into mud. The tank is almost sunk into the mud, and is almost full of oil—about 200 gallons. Is there any danger of the tank's leaking? What on earth can I do now with- ...out moving the tank?

A. Yes, there is danger of the oil leaking out, for if the tank sinks low enough the pipe line leading to the burner may break. Have your oil burner serviceman empty the tank and disconnect the piping; then have a mason put down a firm bed of concrete. This should be set in solid ground. Since the tank is a small one, it probably would be wiser to have it installed in the basement of the house.

• • •

Protecting Pipes

Q. What can I do to protect my water and drainage pipes from freezing next winter? They are underneath the house, which stands two feet off the ground and is only boarded, and has tar paper around the bottom. Is there anything to wrap the pipes in to eliminate the danger of freezing?

A. A good way to protect pipes is to cover them with a thick half- ...felt pipe covering made especially for this purpose. It might be bet- ...ter in your case to box them in. The box must be of ample size, well tarred at the joints and on the outer surface, so that they will be waterproof. Box boards should be at least one inch thick. For in- ...sulation, fill with expanded mica granules or loose moisture-proof rock wool. There should be at least three inches of insulation around the pipes, more if possible.

• • •

Dust from Registers

Q. We have just redecorated our rooms and would like to keep the walls clean around the reg- ...isters where the heat comes up. We have a hot air furnace. Can you advise?

A. The grille should be re- ...moved and the duct cleaned of dust, preferably with a vacuum cleaner. Try placing a folded piece of dark mosquito netting over the opening; then replace the grille, which should fit tightly enough to hold the fabric in place. The fabric should be fireproofed, if possible. The fabric can be taken out when dusty, and a fresh piece put in. There should be no open space between the grille and wall.

Prexies To Meet Sandusky Friday in Final Away-Game

When Harding gridders meet Sandusky next Friday night, they will run into a team that has a 7-1 record—seven defeats, one tie.

In their eight games this season, the Sandusky Blue Streaks have scored but three touchdowns and one extra point while their opposition has racked up 216 points.

Cleveland Collinwood smothered the Blue Streaks, 33-0, Elyria, 40-0, Mansfield, 21-6, Ashland, 20-0, Fremont Ross, 13-0, Lorain, 34-6, and Cleveland Heights, 48-0. Last week Sandusky came back to tie DeVilbiss, 7-7.

Look like an easy victim for the Prexies?

Not so, says Prexy Coach Pete Howison. "They're tough," said he, "all of them are tough."

Last year Sandusky came down to Marion with seven straight defeats and what happened? They took Harding, 27-0.

Last year the Presidents went into and out of that game non-victorious, which is a somewhat different approach than they'll use this year, if not a different exit.

The Prexy win over Circleville last Friday night was the sixth for Harding in eight starts. They have scored a total of 166 points to their opponents' 44.

On the basis of games played with Ashland, the Prexies rate 19 points better than Sandusky.

If the Blue Streaks aren't in the bag, then maybe all football coaches are right when they say that past records don't mean a thing.

After the Blue Streaks comes Fremont Ross, and at least a couple of the Prexies have some hope in a Marion win over the powerful Fremonters. Said one Prexy to the other upon hearing of undefeated Fremont's 39-7 setback by Elyria last Friday, "See, I told you they could be beat."

FORM "SMALL COLLEGE" ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

By The Associated Press

LIMA, O., Nov. 4—Tentative formation of a new "small college" athletic conference that would embrace schools from Ohio, Indiana, and possibly Michigan, was announced today by Gilbert D. Dodd, athletic director of Taylor College, Upland, Ind., temporary chairman.

Dodd said representatives of five colleges, with enrollments of between 225 and 500 students, met last night with him and athletic officials of Tri-State College, Angola, Ind., and Huntington (Ind.) College. The Ohio colleges attending, he said, were Defiance, Rio Grande, Cedarville, Bluffton, and Ohio Northern.

Plans were made to name "mythical champions" during the approaching basketball and baseball seasons and following the 1948 football season, Dodd said.

HARDING SOPHS STOP JR. ALL-STARS, 39-0

Harding sophomores blanked the junior high All-Stars, 39-0, on a soggy field, at the stadium last night.

Harry Dowler and Jack Williams led the sophomore attack with two touchdowns apiece. Dowler broke away for several long runs which were called back for penalties.

Don Sullivan and Gene Hypes each made tallies in the fracas. Extra points were made by Williams, Greg Graham, and David Foreman.

The All-Stars went into the game with but a week of practice together. The best football talent from Edison, Central, and Vernon Junior High schools made up the All-Star cast, coached by Darl Gatchell of Vernon.

Snatches of Sports

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4—College football this year is just about as good as it can be—a lot better than during the "golden era" following World War one—says Brown coach Rip Engle . . . So the coaching profession will have to turn to psychology to get an edge over the opposition . . . Rip doesn't claim anyone actually has taken that step, but he relates that when his Brown team played Princeton, an ambulance drew up outside the room where he was making his pre-game talk . . . The driver leaned on the siren and kept it blasting until Engle abandoned his speech and the Brown players didn't realize until half time that the ambulance was for use by both teams, if necessary . . . "I didn't believe Charley Caldwell or Princeton would try such a stunt, so I investigated" Rip explains. "I found it was a town ambulance and the driver was very much interested in the game—and he had spent two years in the Army in the psychological warfare department."

WHEN JIM LOOKABAUGH brought his Oklahoma A. and M. team east to play Temple, he encountered Coach Greasy Neale of the Philadelphia Eagles . . . Football has gone too open, Neale was moaning, you just throw the ball anywhere at any time . . . Since Temple was the favorite, Lookabaugh decided that was a good hint and he told his Aggies to get in there and pitch. Regardless of caution . . . well, the score tells the rest: Aggies 26, Temple 0.

Army Must Stop Johnny Lujack To Avert Rout By Notre Dame

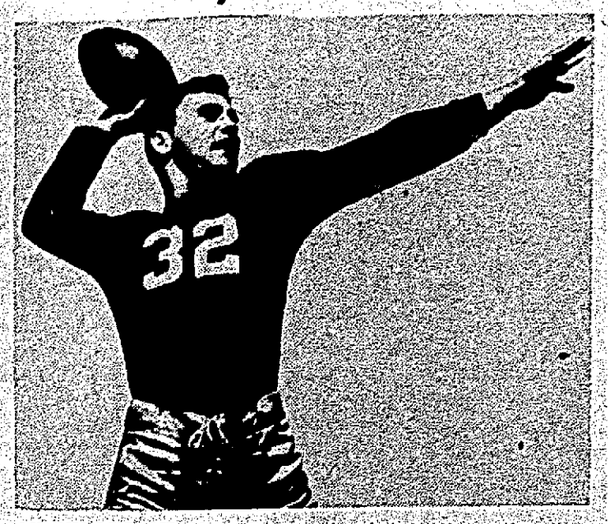
By FRANK ECK
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor

NEW YORK—When Army's gold-helmeted Cadets sink their cleats into the turf at Notre Dame stadium Saturday to battle the fighting Irish of Notre Dame, there is little doubt that football history will be written.

This 34th meeting of the colorful series, started back in 1913 on the plains of West Point, will mark the end of hostilities between two pigskin powerhouses. This is the one game the Irish want to win. They must win it to be acclaimed national champion.

Army, on the other hand, cannot claim the mythical championship for the Cadets were humbled by Columbia. The one man the Cadets must stop is All-America Johnny Lujack who, as a freshman in 1943, was a big gun in Notre Dame's 26-0 victory, the last an Irish team scored against Army.

Ben Martin, Navy's freshman coach who has scouted Notre Dame in its first four triumphs, claim's Lujack is the "perfect passer."



JOHNNY LUJACK, Notre Dame's air-minded All-America quarterback, has been brilliant in two previous Army games. He will be out to keep his fine record intact when the rivals meet for the last time.

Lujack's Jersey Unsoiled

"He controls the ball with his finger tips," says Martin. "He is mechanically perfect. Frank Tripucka, his understudy, is mechanically as good but Lujack has a bit more poise.

"Lujack, of course, gets wonderful protection from the line. His jersey hasn't been to the dry cleaner's this season. There isn't a grass stain on it."

Thus, Army will have to stop the quarterback generally regarded as collegiate football's best passer. So far the Army team has been woefully weak defending against passes. Army just isn't air-minded this season.

Army Lacks Passer

Coach Earl Blaik, the man who guided the Black Knights through 32 games without defeat, this season tried three forward passers but all left something to be desired. Army may miss Blanchard and Davis but it's Arnold Tucker they must be moaning about. Tucker stands out more than ever now that Army must rely on ground plays to make advances.

Navy man Martin says the only thing Notre Dame lacks is a big fullback. "They just don't have anyone who can go through the line when you need three yards," says Martin. "Emil Sitko is best on this type of play but he weighs only 175 pounds."

The Army-Notre Dame series has seen good and bad football but the two games that stand out were the 59-0 and 48-0 trouncings of 1944 and 1945 when war-weakened Notre Dame was smothered by Army's unbeaten elevens. These are two games that hurt the Irish pride and rather than suffer similar lickings when Notre Dame teams become stronger and Army elevens less powerful, Blaik decided to end the series with this year's game. At least that is the general belief.

Irish Started It

The rivalry between the two schools has been keen since the beginning of the series. The records show that the first game was a rout with Notre Dame winning, 35-13. It was the only game out of nine that Army lost that season and it marked the second time in West Point history that an opponent had rolled up more than 30 points. Responsible for that score were two gridiron immortals, Knute Rockne, who later coached the Irish teams, and Gus Dorais.

There have been other Army-Notre Dame standouts—the Four Horsemen, George Gipp, Chris Flanagan's 63-yard run for the only score in the 1926 victory; Johnny O'Brien, who was called "One Play" O'Brien because the only play in which he participated resulted in the winning touchdown Jack Elder, who sprinted 97 yards with an interception to win the 1929 game 7-0; and Frank Carideo, whose extra point won the 7-6 game before 120,000 rain-soaked spectators in Chicago's Soldier's Field in 1930.

Standouts for Army

Army, too, has had its stars. They run from Elmer Oliphant to Chris Cagle to the touchdown twins, Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis.

The 34th and final clash could result in an upset with either Elwyn (Rip) Rowan or Stuart in the hero role. However, favored Notre Dame has the big man in Lujack, who has done well in his two previous meetings with the Cadets.

In '43 he surprised as a freshman and last season, playing safety he made a tackle on Blanchard that many felt saved the day for the Irish. Maybe he can do it again. At any rate, West Point's secondary has the highest respect for Lujack's pitching arm. The Cadets realize he's the man they must stop.

IRISH HAVE REACHED STRIDE, SAYS LEAHY

Notre Dame Remains Top College Football Team.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 4 — Notre Dame's unbeaten and untied eleven, which Coach Frank Leahy admits "has finally reached its true stride," remained the number one college football team in the nation today in the weekly Associated Press poll of sports writers.

The South Bend gridders face their biggest test of the campaign Saturday when they meet Army in final game of a long series between the traditional rivals. Cadet Coach Earl Blaik predicted the Irish would throw all of their manpower and strategic resources into the game.

Michigan's Wolverines who kept their slate clean by defeating a tough Illinois team 14-7 in a gruelling game that might well have decided the Big Nine's Rose Bowl representative, retained second place.

Southern Methodist, upset victor over previously unbeaten Texas by the slim margin of one point, surprised by taking over third spot from the Longhorns. The Mustangs made the biggest gain of the week, vaulting from eighth place.

Team standings (first place votes in parentheses:)

1—Notre Dame (106)	1731
2—Michigan (56)	1661
3—Southern Methodist (7)	1187
4—Pennsylvania (8)	1136
5—Southern California (2)	1082
6—Georgia Tech (6)	1041
7—Penn State (2)	701

Barberton Stays On Top In INS Poll; Elyria 2nd Best Ohio High School Team

By JOHN BARRINGTON
Ohio INS Sports Editor

COLUMBUS, Nov. 4—Barberton's Magics strengthened their hold on first place in the state high school football ratings today, but Coach Harry Strobel's charges were casting a wary eye toward dangerous pitfalls immediately ahead of them.

Sports writers and radio sportcasters voting in the weekly International News Service pool gave the Magics overwhelming support for the second straight week.

The schedule makers, however, posed a problem for the Barberton combine this week. The Magics, who smothered Canton Lincoln, 22-0, last week, invade Massillon Friday night in search of their tenth straight win of the season.

The Tigers are certain to be in rare form for the Barberton contest. They lost a last-minute 16-to-12 decision to Cleveland Cathedral Latin last weekend, which isn't calculated to sweeten their dispositions.

That Latin-Massillon fracas tumbled the twice-beaten Tigers clear out of the state's "big ten" in the ratings. By the same token, it boosted Latin from seventh to fourth.

Below Barberton, the standings generally underwent a scrambling. Fremont Ross, second a week ago, was nowhere in sight following a 39-7 drubbing by Elyria.

Moving up from fifth place, Elyria took over the vacated runner-up position.

Canton McKinley advanced a notch into third place through a combination of its own 20-to-7 flattening of Alliance and a surprise 13-to-13 tie between Middletown and Portsmouth.

That deadlock dropped the unbeaten Middies to seventh place.

With Latin taking over, Columbus West advanced a notch to fifth after its 25-to-7 win over East.

INS FOOTBALL STANDINGS

1. Barberton (8-0-0)
2. Elyria (8-0-0)
3. Canton McKinley (6-1-0)
4. Cleveland Cathedral Latin (6-1-0)
5. Columbus West (8-0-0)
6. Toledo Waite (7-1-0)
7. Middletown (7-0-1)
8. Hamilton (7-1-0)
9. Cleveland Holy Name (6-1-0)
10. Salem (8-0-0)

which clinched the city championship. Only a whisker behind West was Toledo Waite, which had an easy time thumping Chillicothe, 40 to 7.

Hamilton, beaten only by Springfield, reentered the first division, coming home eighth on the strength of a 19-to-12 defeat of Toledo Libbey. Cleveland Holy Name also surged back after falling from grace last week. The Namers smashed Cleveland West, 33 to 6, and claimed ninth position.

Salem entered the select list in tenth place, supplanting Akron West. The Quakers recorded their eighth straight win, 25 to 13, over East Liverpool, while Akron West was upset by Lakewood, 13 to 6.

Other teams supported strongly in the balloting were Hamilton Catholic, Troy and Lisbon, all undefeated; and Warren Harding, beaten only once.

Bucks Rehearse Passes For Northwestern Tilt

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4—Coach Wes Fesler had a couple of new pass plays for the Ohio State football team to rehearse today and he voiced hope they would click against Northwestern at Ohio stadium next Saturday.

The Buckeyes, trying to figure a way to snap out of their losing streak, devoted yesterday to reviewing football textbooks but are to return to the practice field today.

Indicating he would emphasize passing this week, Fesler said: "Our passing wasn't too good against Indiana. On five different occasions we had a man out in the open, but the passer threw the ball far over his head. And when you can't hit on passing, the going is pretty rough."

VILLANOVA, KENTUCKY TO PLAY BOWL GAME

K. of C.'s First "Great Lakes" Choice; Meet Dec. 6.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Nov. 4—Villanova and Kentucky will match football power at Cleveland stadium Dec. 6. When the sixth city inaugurates its annual Great Lakes Bowl game.

The Wildcats from neighboring Kentucky and the Wildcats from neighboring Pennsylvania agreed yesterday to play in the post-season grid event sponsored by the Knights of Columbus here to raise funds for an athletic program for Greater Cleveland youngsters.

Athletic Director Bernard Shively of Kentucky signed contracts here for the blue grass school's first football "bowl" appearance and Athletic Director Rev. Fr. E. B. McKee of Villanova accepted by telephone shortly afterward.

At the request of the competing schools, the cash guarantee to the participants was not made public, but previous reports were $30,000 would go to each contestant.

Villanova, a Catholic school with an enrollment of about 1,000, and Kentucky, with five times as many students, have tasted defeat on the gridiron twice this fall. Last year Villanova won six and lost four in football, and Kentucky took seven of 10 in its first season under Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant.

Report Chisox Owners Agreed To Pay Fine

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Nov. 4—Directors of the Chicago White Sox planned a formal meeting today to discuss the club's suspension from baseball and there were reports they already had agreed in secret to pay the $500 fine which would reinstate the Sox without delay.

At St. Thomas College in St. Paul, student Charles Comiskey, future owner of the White Sox, was quoted by the Minneapolis Tribune as saying that the $500 fine would be paid today by one of the directors at the office of Commissioner A. B. Chandler in Cincinnati. This would automatically restore the White Sox to good graces and make them eligible for the American League player-draft meeting in Cincinnati Monday.

Irish To Close Season Here With Mt. Gilead Indians

The Irish of St. Mary close their season at Harding stadium Friday night when they entertain the Mt. Gilead Indians in the season's final Mid-State league game on the books.

A win over the Indians or a tie game would give the Irish first place in the league and keep Mt. Gilead in the league dungeon.

If the Indians should upset the Irish—not a likely prospect nor a popular one around Marion—the league would have two winners, St. Mary and Carey, and two losers, Mt. Gilead and Richwood. No matter what happens, Marysville will end up in the middle.

The Indians are in the cellar with three league losses and no wins at the present time, and St. Mary leads with three wins.

Members of the league's winning football team earn gold watch-chain footballs.

St. Mary Coach Gene Fetter hopes his boys aren't counting on the dazzle of the gold footballs they haven't won yet to charm a win out of the Indians. "Overconfidence," said Fetter, "could beat the Irish."

On the basis of comparative scores with four common opponents—Carey, Sunbury, Richwood and Marysville—the Irish rate 23.7 points better than Mt. Gilead.

The Irish beat Carey, 18-7, Sunbury, 25-6, Richwood, 26-0, and Marysville, 19-14.

Mt. Gilead lost to Carey, 26-12, edged Sunbury, 13-12, and lost to Richwood, 19-6, and Marysville, 14-6.

The Indian season record stands at four wins and four losses. Besides Sunbury, they topped Danville, Bellville and Fredericktown. Crestline crushed them in the opener, 25-6.

OTTO GRAHAM COPS OFFENSIVE HONORS

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 4—The individual race for total offense honors in the All-America Football conference is as close as the next step.

Because that's the margin—one yard—by which Otto Graham of the defending champion Cleveland Browns, wrested honors from Orban "Spec" Sanders of the New York Yankees in last Sunday's pro games.

Graham completed 13 out of 16 passes for 256 yards and three touchdowns to defeat Buffalo's eastern division leaders, 28-7, to give the Brownie ace a total of 1,710 yards on the ground and in the air.

This shot him a yard ahead of Sanders, who incidentally cracked three A.A.F.C. records in leading the Yanks to their 25-21 victory over Baltimore. Sanders now has 1,709 passing and running yards, of which 774 were on the ground, giving him leadership in rushing offense.

Sanders scored three touchdowns to bring his total to 13, one more than his high of last year. Besides he's passed for nine scores for a touchdown responsibility of 22, or three more than the record Graham and Glenn Dobbs shared in 1946. His 774 rushing yards betters his league record and 1946 pro high mark of 709 yards. He rounded out his chores Sunday with two punt returns for 103 yards, giving him leadership in that respect with a 149 yard total for five back-trips.

GOLF MATCH UNDER WAY

By The United Press

PINEHURST, N. C., Nov. 4—The $7,500 north and south open got under way here today as a wide-open race. Bantam Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., was not in the field to defend the championship he won last year, and it seemed that any of a dozen players could walk off with the $1,500 top money.

Lady Grapplers Set For Thursday Match

A double main event will feature the week's wrestling card at the Armory Thursday night.

Two ladies will grapple in the first of the 90-minute matches—Dot Dotson of Texas and June Byers of Alabama.

Paul Orth of Toledo will meet Dutch Shultz of Texas in the second main event.

A ten-minute preliminary match between the paperweight Barlow boys of Marion will start at 8:30 p. m.

Dykes shot back: "Well, today you've been missing everything else."

Grandmother Who Is Detective Gives Views on Women

By The Associated Press

HACKENSACK, N. J. — Ann Terhune, detective and grandmother, believes women could be a greater factor for law enforcement.

"It's time women became more aware of their responsibilities," says this 66-year-old detective, who has handled criminal cases involving women for 26 years.

The only woman in New Jersey who wears a detective's badge also makes the following pointed observations:

"Women should stay at home more.

"Women shoud not drink so much.

"They should think more about their families and less about themselves.

"Young girls of today attach too much importance to self-expression and not enough to service."

Detective Terhune, tall, gray-haired and blue-eyed, became interested in police work through an interest in social problems involving women, particularly the problem of unmarried mothers.

That was more than a quarter a century ago, when her husband, the late Henry Terhune, a mechanic, was living. She used to hurry home from a day of investigating crime to prepare supper for Henry and their two sons, George and Thornwald. Now that both sons are married, Mrs. Terhune has her own home near the Bergen county courthouse.

After 26 years on the job, she says:

"Retire? I'm going right on working as long as I have the breath to do it."

Most Eskimos live near the coast where they draw much of their subsistence from mammals of the sea.

TELEVISION

Radio Electronics

This new and rapidly expanding industry requires specialized trained men as Broadcast Engineers, Installation and Lighting Engineers, Television Cameramen, Control Board operators, plus thousands of Television Receiver Technicians. Veterans, those of you who have foresight to get into this field now will have first opportunity at key positions.

A small manufacturing, research and training organization will accept a number of men from this area to be trained for existing opportunities in this field. Men accepted will be trained in the south's newest and most modern equipped Television Laboratories under the personal supervision of skilled engineers who work in the industry. Veterans can be trained at government expense, collect full subsistence plus a spare-time job in private industry. Housing also arranged. For full details contact C. E. Beckett, Hotel Harding, Nov. 3 through 5, from 9 to 12 a. m. & 1 to 8 p. m. or telephone for appointment. United Television Laboratories, Inc. Louisville, Ky.

News of Our Boys

Arthur F. Martin, fireman first class in the navy, who reenlisted in service Oct. 6, has been stationed at Norfolk, Va., according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Martin of 376 Quarry street. He was in the navy previously 18 months, and served aboard three different ships in the Japanese area. After receiving his discharge July 10, last year, he worked until recently at the Commercial Steel Casting Co. here.

LIPPMANN

Petkov, and for the persecution of Maniu, Mikolajczk and the Yugoslav Peasant leaders. These actions are designed not only to intimidate the opposition but to make the breach as irreparable as possible between the men who run the eastern governments and the western nations.

These are the tactics of defeat, and indeed of desperation. These actions speak louder even than the excessively loud words of Mr. Vishinsky. They are not the actions of a great power which is confident that it is succeeding.

Our own greatest danger is that we shall accept a false estimate of the European situation, and of the real alignment of forces, and that as a result we shall be frightened and violent when in fact we should be confident, constructive, and magnanimous. For our real problem is not how to wage the cold war. It has been waged and the decisive moment of it is behind us. Our problem is not how to contain the Soviets. They are contained. It is to push towards a settlement which permits the recovery of Europe and of the world, and to relax the tension, to subdue the anxiety, and to end the panic.
